Mayor Richard Penn's guest for last night's Miss Pumpkin Show Parade was John D. Herbert, treasurer of state. Police Chief Robert Temple handled driving chores.

The snappy Malta-McConnellsville Band made quite a hit with show spectators. This is the unit that traveled south last season to perform at the Orange Bowl football game. The classy outfit moves and plays like the famous Ohio State Marching Band.

A dazzling display of color was presented by Aladdin Temple Shriners in last night's big parade. The contingent was headed by C. W. (Dolly) England, illustrious potentate, and his Divan. Units included the noted Drum and Bugle Corps, the mobile lighted crescent, a shiny red fire truck, a brightly shining searchlight, a medical truck and an array of marchers in colorful uniforms.

Many local Shriners are members of the sharp Drum and Bugle Corps. Jack McGuire and Earl Palm served as local escorts for the corps.

Stanley Stevens is doing his usual excellent job of announcing parades at Court and Main. Each year Stan expresses the fond hope that his vocal cords will hold out until Saturday's finale. His job

Cincy VD Rate Climbs; Medics Hit

CINCINNATI (AP) — Venereal disease is a serious problem in Hamilton County—and its seriousness is largely hidden because doctors do not report new cases as required by law.

Dr. Kenneth Macleod, Cincinnati health commissioner, and Dr. T. A. Cockburn, his assistant, came to that conclusion in a report on a recent Health Department survey.

"The physicians of the United States obviously are not obeying the law requiring them to report syphilis, and there are no practical means available to make them obey the law," Dr. Cockburn said.

He said that the survey showed 22 cases of syphilis were reported to the County Health Department in the first nine months of 1962. At the same time, 66 per cent of the county's physicians answered a questionnaire on the same subject by saying they treated 80 cases.

Dr. Cockburn blamed this silence in ethical considerations and said that in case of a crack-down, "the accused physician would claim, in perfect honesty, that he was acting in the best interest of his patient and his colleagues would probably support him."

Fifth American GI Defects to Commies

HEIDELBERG, Germany (AP)—Another American soldier—the fifth in three weeks—has defected to Communist East Germany, the East German news agency ADN claimed Wednesday night.

U.S. Army headquarters said the alleged defector, Pvt. Frank Barton, 22, of Los Angeles, Calif., has been absent without leave since Aug. 30 from his unit in Giessen, northwest of Frankfurt.

becomes quite hectic when lead parade units turn left onto E. Main St. while those further back are still heading into W. Main.

Janie Henson, one of the attendants to Little Miss Pumpkin Show, suffers from a bone disease called leg perth. She has worn a corrective brace and shoe for nearly a year and a half, but if all goes well, she will be able to take it off in December, it was reported by her mother, Mrs. Frank Henson.

Mrs. Jeannette Schumann, Stoutsville, who gave piano lessons to Cathy Griner, had the honor of watching her former pupil as she played the Foresman chimes opening Pumpkin Show yesterday. The chimes are located in the tower of the Court House.

There were 13 high school bands in the Miss Pumpkin Show parade last night. They were from McArthur, The Plains of Mt. Sterling, Malta McConnellsville, Miami Trace, Greenfield, West Portsmouth Grove City, Amanda Clearcreek, Green Twp., Teays Valley, Paint Valley and Chillicothe.

Mrs. Minnie Bales, who lives at the corner of Main and Pickaway Sts., has placed chairs on her porch. And on the porch is also a written invitation to "Come up and rest."

Remember the days when you could always find a fairly uncrowded space to watch the parade on Franklin St. Those days are gone. With the addition of an announcing platform, manned last night by Dick Huggins and Harold Anderson, the street is now nearly as crowded as the uptown route.

Estimates on the size of the crowd range from 25,000 by Gooding Amusement manager John Enright to 50,000 by an observer experienced in judging crowds at county fairs through out the state. But everyone was agreed on one thing — it was the largest group to ever view an opening night at the Pumpkin Show.

One Pumpkin Show fan has suggested, rather emphatically as a matter of fact, that youngsters are due a little more courtesy during parades and special events. Some people fail to realize that the little tots almost have to be on the front row in order to see. And it's a rather fearsome thing for a youngster to be pushed and squeezed as stronger, thought less adults crowd to the front.

A nine-year old Circleville lad who was "on the critical list" for several days last month, following a bicycle truck accident, watched the Miss Pumpkin Show Parade last night in grand style. Artie Foll, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Foll 156 W. Water St. was able to view the parade from a lawn chair along the parade route on Pinckney St.

Meta Mae Dill, leader of the well-known singing Metta-Larks, gave several Pumpkin Show visitors a treat yesterday at the Williams Music Company's exhibit on N. Court St. Mrs. Dill, an organ instructor, played several selections on the church organ on display there.

Members of the Portsmouth's West High School Band were "dragging" by the time the Miss Pumpkin Show Parade was over last night. The fast-stepping unit had presented a concert during the afternoon at Logan Elm High School.

Two power failures momentarily interrupted the judging of Miss Pumpkin Show contestants last night. Twice during the contest both the lights and sound system were out.

Contestants for the Miss Pumpkin Show title had somewhat of an advantage over contestants of previous years. The temperature stayed around the 50-degree mark and most of the girls were comfortable without coats. However, Barbara Davis (Continued on Page 2)

Record Crowd On Hand for Show Opener

What has been considered in some circles as the largest opening night crowd ever was on hand for last night's Pumpkin Show festivities.

Conservative estimates set the attendance figure at 45,000 plus. But some of the old-timers said in the neighborhood of 65,000 would be a closer guess.

A clear and unseasonably warm autumn day provided all the momentum for a swelling crowd. Spectators started pouring in about noon. By last night's parade time, the city almost was "bursting at the seams."

With another sunny and warm outlook in store, a repeat overflow crowd is anticipated for today and tonight. No rain in sight means the same will hold true for Friday and Saturday.

TAKING the spotlight yesterday were the Little Miss and Miss Pumpkin Show Parades. Named Little Miss following the afternoon parade was petite Sharon Kay Snyder. Her attendants are Janie Henson and Vanessa Lewis.

Capturing the Miss Pumpkin Show title was Page Miller of Logan Elm High School. Attendant laurels went to Fay Young of Amanda-Clearcreek and Ann Hoffman of Circleville.

Both queens and their respective courts will reign over the remaining three days of the show. They will officially greet all their admiring fans during parades today, Friday and Saturday.

Today's spotlight will shine on the Baby Parade at 2 p.m. and the Parade of Bands at 8 tonight. Both are popular processions and are expected to draw maximum spectator interest.

Also on the Thursday agenda are band concerts, free acts, hotenannies, a record hop and a round of square dancing. The popular Pumpkin Pie Auction again will be held at 10 p.m. on Main St.

Friday highlights will be the Pet Parade in the afternoon and the Merchants-Industrial-Lodge Parade in the evening. The noted U. S. Air Force Wright-Patterson Field Band will perform starting at 7 p.m. on the W. Main St. platform.

NO PARADE is scheduled for Saturday afternoon. But plenty of entertainment will be in store, including first stages of the annual Baton Twirling contest. Finals competition will be held in the evening.

Saturday evening it will be the Winners Parade, starting at 8.

Korean Chief Gives Pledge

SEOUL, Korea (AP) — Military strongman Chung Hee Park said today his election as president was a giant step toward democracy in South Korea. He pledged to work for political stability.

His chief opponent, Yung Po-sun, called Park's victory the beginning of "virtual dictatorship" and said the nation can not hope for political stability.

Final official returns from the election Tuesday showed Park defeated Yun by a margin of 156,029 votes. With three minor opposition candidates winning 831,344 votes, Park got only 43 per cent of the total.

Park's victory statement said his 29 months of military rule and the civilian government he overthrew were "unfortunate things of the past."

Soviet-China Split Is Slated for Study

MOSCOW (AP) — An international Communist source said today that Communist party delegations from 2 to 25 foreign countries would meet in Moscow Nov. 7 to prepare a call for a world meeting to discuss the Soviet-Chinese dispute.

The informant said the meeting probably would be called for February or March and all Communist parties in the world, approximately 100, would be invited.

Family Combo Winner in Pie Contest

A mother and daughter combination came through to top today's Bake-A-Pumpkin pie contest.

They were Mrs. Lois Morrison, Route 1, Williamsport, and her teen age daughter, Dawn Morrison.

Last year's champion, Mrs. Bernadette Bass 607 S. Scioto St. was second in the pie baking contest today in the adult division while Mrs. P. D. Kraft of Amanda finished third.

Behind Miss Morrison on the teen age division were Mary Lou Skaggs, 130 Dunmore Road, second and Gloria Barr, 212 Walnut St., third.

There will be one more daily contest before the Saturday morning bake-off.

Judges today were Betty Bolton and Judy Spafford of the Columbus and Southern Electric Co.

Locking System Works Too Good

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A woman who has a special lock system in the house where she has lived for 60 years waited four days before calling for help after finding herself locked in her upstairs bedroom, police report.

Louise Welti, 93, was rescued by firemen Wednesday. She had no water and only a little fruit, she said.

She waited until 3 p.m. Wednesday before calling through an open window to a passerby that her door was locked and she had no key.

It's Wonderful Day for Petite Sharon K. Snyder

A petite little blonde, 6-year-old Sharon Kay Snyder, was named Little Miss Pumpkin Show yesterday by a trio of judges who have by far the most difficult job of the entire week.

The Little Miss Parade and Contest, which has traditionally become associated with the opening of the gala Pumpkin Show, was graced by wonderfully warm, shirt sleeve weather.

The streets were lined with people as a huge first day turnout viewed the event. There were 114 contestants in what is usually one of the most popular contests of the Pumpkin Show.

And every one of the contestants was worthy of the title. The entire crowd at the W. Main St. platform, where the judging took place, sympathized with the tremendous task of the judges.

SHARON KAY is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marlin Snyder, 325 E. Mound St.

Her attendants for the week of festivities are Janie Henson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Henson, Route 3, and Vanessa Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Lewis, also Route 3.

Relinquishing her crown to Miss Snyder was Linda Sue Saunders, Little Miss of 1962. Her attendants, also present at the judging, are Denise Rada baugh and Colleen Kay Adams.

The parade started promptly at 3 p.m. Under the competent direction of Ned Hard-en, veteran parade manager for the Circleville Pumpkin Show, it went off without a hitch.

The judging was completed by 5 p.m. Judges for the event were Larry Moles, of Lima state president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce; Miss Gail Tabor, society editor of the Columbus Citizen Journal; and Columbus television personality Dean Lewis.

First inaugurated in 1947, the Little Miss contest was sponsored by the Circleville Junior Chamber of Commerce. Co-chairmen of the event this year were Charles Altman and Rich-

Scranton Shuns Draft

WASHINGTON (AP)—Liberal Republicans casting about for a candidate to stop the whistling progress of Sen. Barry Gold water toward the 1964 presidential nomination apparently have lost a prospect.

Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania went about as far as a politician could be expected to go Wednesday in saying that he not only is not a candidate for the nomination but would back any effort to draft him.

Scranton did an uncertain waltz on the draft question at first he said he would respond to "an honest and sincere" call. But he added that it is impossible to launch any draft without connivance of the candidate and "I would step in and stop it."

Court of Beauty Starts New Rule

The classic beauty, poise and charm of Page Miller, representing Logan Elm High School, won the crown and title of Miss Pumpkin Show of 1963 shortly after 10 p. m. yesterday.

Attendants for the new queen are Ann Elizabeth Hoffman (Miss Circleville) and Fay Young (Miss Amanda-Clearcreek).

The judging and crowning of the new royal miss had all the suspense and pageantry that goes with the annual beauty competition, sponsored by the Sigma Phi Gamma International Sorority. Mrs. Tom Dewey was chairman of the sorority group responsible for the parade and contest.

Miss Pumpkin Show of 1963, a stately 16-year-old brunette, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Miller, Route 1, Circleville. Attendant Ann Hoffman, 17, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Hoffman, 1435 N. Court St. Attendant Fay Young, 14, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Young, Route 2, Amanda.

HANDLING the judging and eliminations were Lt. Col. Buch walter, director of base operations at Lockbourne Air Force Base; Dean Lewis, of WBNS radio, Columbus, and Jerry Rasor of WLW-C TV, Columbus.

Trophies were presented to Miss Pumpkin Show and her attendants by Leo Morgan, representing the local BPO Elks Lodge. Bouquets of golden mums were awarded to each of the winners by the sponsors of the parade, Sigma Phi Gamma. Mrs. Dewey performed the honors.

Miss Miller accepted her crown from Barbara Davis, Darby Twp. High School, who reigned over last year's Pumpkin Show. Attendants of the 1962 Show, Pamela Mowery and Sandy Palmer, relinquished their regal ribbons to the new court.

A general feeling of tension and anxiety prevailed over the crowd during judging as emcee James Shea intentionally prolonged announcing the three top winners.

When the new queen was announced, two sounds stood out above the applause of the audience — a sigh and release of tension from Miss Miller and a victorious scream from her mother, Polly Miller.

The new queen wore a street-length dress of green velvet with a square neckline and long sleeves. A cheerleader at Logan Elm, she plans to further her education in music after high school. She is scheduled to enroll in the Julliard School of Music in New York and major in vocal music.

AT LOGAN ELM, Miss Miller is a member of the band and chorus. She is active in 4-H and Farm Bureau Youth Council work. Her first love is singing and occupies much of her spare time. Other hobbies and interests include dramatics and football. The radiant brunette is 5-6, weighs 118 pounds and her measurements are 34-23-34.

Other high school girls participating in the parade and beauty competition were Karen Liff (Miss Darby), Becky Stevenson, (Miss Jackson), Kathy Lyons (Miss Kingston), Linda Kempton (Miss Laurelville), Cathy Redman (Miss Monroe), Bev Morris (Miss Teays Valley) and Janice Bryant (Miss Williamsport).

Man Fears End, Pens Final Note

KANSAS CITY (AP)—"Dear mom, dad and Darlene, I love you," the young man wrote on the back of an old bill of sale he had fished from his pocket.

He laid the note beside him in the bottom of the ravine where his legs and lower body had been pinned to loose earth and brush by a 15-ton bulldozer when he dismounted momentarily while clearing brush.

Roger Jones, 24, had given up hope Wednesday that anyone would find him. He had lain alone in the remote area east of the city for three hours or more.

The note was intended for his father, Harvey Jones, an engineer; his mother; and his fiancée, Darlene Smith, 20, of nearby Independence, Mo.

Then Harold Pollock and Bill Green happened to pass by on a little used road. Jones saw them and screamed for help.

"Please drive this thing off me," he begged.

They went for help.

It took five wreckers to lift the bulldozer.

Jones later underwent surgery. His condition, the hospital reported, was serious.

Thief with Heavy Crime Is Sought

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Police are looking for a person with a heavy crime on his mind — someone stole 750 pounds of dimes, nickels and pennies from a parking meter collection truck.

No one knows exactly how much 750 pounds of coins comes to. As a parking meter collections employee at city hall pointed out, "we calculate only in pounds. Money has no monetary value to us."

HANDLING the judging and eliminations were Lt. Col. Buchwalter, director of base operations at Lockbourne Air Force Base; Dean Lewis, of WBNS radio, Columbus, and Jerry Rasor of WLW-TV, Columbus.

Trophies were presented to Miss Pumpkin Show and her attendants by Leo Morgan, representing the local BPO Elks Lodge. Bouquets of golden mums were awarded to each of the winners by the sponsors of the parade, Sigma Phi Gamma. Mrs. Dewey performed the honors.

Miss Miller accepted her crown from Barbara Davis, Darby Twp. High School, who reigned over last year's Pumpkin Show. Attendants of the 1962 Show, Pamela Mowery and Sandy Palmer, relinquished their regal ribbons to the new court.

A general feeling of tension and anxiety prevailed over the crowd during judging as emcee James Shea intentionally prolonged announcing the three top winners.

When the new queen was announced, two sounds stood out above the applause of the audience — a sigh and release of tension from Miss Miller and a victorious scream from her mother, Polly Miller.

The new queen wears a street-length dress of green velvet with a square neckline and long sleeves. A cheerleader at Logan Elm, she plans to further her education in music after high school. She is scheduled to enroll in the Julliard School of Music in New York and major in vocal music.

AT LOGAN ELM, Miss Miller is a member of the band and chorus. She is active in 4-H and Farm Bureau Youth Council work. Her first love is singing and occupies much of her spare time. Other hobbies and interests include dramatics and football. The radiant brunette is 5-6, weighs 118 pounds and her measurements are 34-23-34.

Other high school girls participating in the parade and beauty competition were Karen Liff (Miss Darby), Becky Stevenson, (Miss Jackson), Kathy Lyons (Miss Kingston), Linda Kempton (Miss Laurelville), Cathy Redman (Miss Monroe), Bev Morris (Miss Teays Valley) and Janice Bryant (Miss Williamsport).

Man Fears End, Pens Final Note

KANSAS CITY (AP) — "Dear mom, dad and Darlene, I love you," the young man wrote on the back of an old bill of sale he had fished from his pocket.

He laid the note beside him in the bottom of the ravine where his legs and lower body had been pinned to loose earth and brush by a 15-ton bulldozer when he dismounted momentarily while clearing brush.

Roger Jones, 24, had given up hope Wednesday that anyone would find him. He had lain alone in the remote area east of the city for three hours or more.

The note was intended for his father, Harvey Jones, an engineer; his mother; and his fiancée, Darlene Smith, 20, of nearby Independence, Mo.

Then Harold Pollock and Bill Green happened to pass by on a little used road. Jones saw them and screamed for help.

"Please drive this thing off me," he begged.

They went for help. It took five wreckers to lift the bulldozer.

Jones later underwent surgery. His condition, the hospital reported, was serious.

Thief with Heavy Crime Is Sought

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Police are looking for a person with a heavy crime on his mind — someone stole 750 pounds of dimes, nickels and pennies from a parking meter collection truck.

No one knows exactly how much 750 pounds of coins comes to. As a parking meter collections employee at city hall pointed out, "we calculate only in pounds. Money has no monetary value to us."

Federal Aid For Nurses Said Needed

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — There is no alternative to federal aid in solving the present and growing shortage of nurses Western Reserve University's dean of nursing says.

Dr. Rozella Schlottfeldt addressed an audience of more than 1,000 at the Ohio State Nurses Association convention Wednesday Dr. Schlottfeldt was one of four special consultants for the recent report by the U.S. Surgeon General's Consultant Group on Nursing.

She said it is impossible to produce the 850,000 professional nurses it is figured will be needed to serve 1970's estimated U.S. population. To furnish a "realistic" 680,000 by that time calls for "remarkable changes" in nursing education and recruitment, she said.

As the Surgeon General's report suggested, Dr. Schlottfeldt said, nursing must resort to the same measures the teaching profession did in the postwar period. This, she said, may include reluctant reliance on short-term training programs to relieve the shortage.

It also may require, she added, federal support to students and government aid for physical facilities for nursing education and supported research.

Local Firemen Make Two Calls

Circleville Firemen answered two calls yesterday, with only minor damage resulting.

At 2:45 p. m., a unit was dispatched to E. Main St. near Pickaway St. where gasoline had spilled on the ground. No fire resulted, but firemen sprayed the area with chemicals.

At 7 p. m. firemen checked a car owned by Larry McFadden, 552 Plaza Drive. A cigarette had landed in the front seat.

Columbus Hospital Dedication Slated

Doctors Hospital, Columbus, will dedicate its west side unit at 3 p. m. Sunday.

Dr. P. C. Routzahn, 946 Circle Drive, is a staff member at the hospital. The general public is invited to attend the dedication, view the new equipment and visit with other members of the hospital staff who will be on hand to answer questions.

An open house and tour of new facilities will follow the dedication.

(last year's queen) felt the effects of the night air. She was wearing a beautiful white floor length formal (strapless).

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Young, Colorado Springs, Colo., who traveled 1,300 miles to attend the Pumpkin Show, said they were having a fine time. They are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Hedges, Route 4.

A real float eye-catcher is the mobile dog with the wagging tail and movable ears. It has made quite a hit with the younger set.

All of Roundtown is anxiously awaiting Friday's anticipated return of Ted Lewis. His good friend Ben Gordon is sure he will make it.

Special guests in last night's parade were the queens and their courts from the Jackson

Traffic Docket Lists 2 Motorists

The Circleville Municipal Court listed two motorists charged with traffic violations.

Both signed waivers and paid fines levied. They were:
Richard J. Stanley, West Point, Miss.: $41 and costs for speeding 80 miles per hour in a 50 mile zone.

Robert D. Cotton, Circleville: $15 and costs for failure to yield the right of way.

Senior Citizens On Injury List

Active senior citizens headed the list of persons receiving emergency aid at Berger Hospital yesterday. A total of four persons were treated and released.

Trim Carroll, 70, Route 1, suffered a laceration on his right eyebrow while putting a ventilator in a corner.

Donna Haddox, 29, of 366 E. Logan St., bumped her left arm on a piano, causing contusions and a sprain.

Nolan Seitz, 32, Route 1, Amanda, lacerated his right hand working on a grain elevator.

Tires, Wheels Taken from Car

An unusual theft committed last night is under police investigation.

Danny Binkley, 225 Third Ave. told officers he had parked his car at the playground on Corwin St. prior to visiting the Pumpkin Show. When he returned he found the auto jacked up and the rear tires and wheels missing.

Binkley said he had just mounted mud and snow tires on the vehicle.

OHIO CASH GRAIN

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio Dept. of Agri. cash grain prices: No 2 red wheat unchanged to 2 higher 1.97-2.04, mostly 2.00-2.02; No 2 yellow corn mostly unchanged 1.08-1.14 per bu, mostly 1.09-1.12; or 1.54-1.63 per 100 lbs, mostly 1.56-1.60; No 2 oats mostly unchanged 59-70, mostly 63-65; No 1 soybeans mostly 3-4 lower 2.60-2.70, mostly 2.62-2.66.

Apple Festival, the Millersport Sweetcorn Festival and the annual Parade of the Hills Pageant. All were most lovely.

It's pumpkins and squash and pumpkins all over the place. The place to see them is at the handsome display on W. Main St. Some of the specimens go well over 200 pounds. Judging of the exhibit was scheduled this afternoon.

Enjoying the Pumpkin Show festivities at length today was Goodyear Local No. 2 Retirement Club. Members, 78 strong, were taking in all the sights. All of them are age 65 and beyond. They said they are enjoying the show so much they plan to come back next year.

The Retirement Club visit constitutes one of many tours the organization takes. They said they took the cue to come after seeing and hearing a wide range of publicity on the show.

Don Miller, Route 1, was the "most envied guy" at the Pumpkin Show last night. Don's sister, Page, was crowned Miss Pumpkin Show while his girlfriend, Ann Hoffman (Miss Circleville) was named first attendant of the Miss Pumpkin Show Court.

Mrs. Cliff Miller, Route 1, grandmother of Miss Pumpkin Show, said last night she was confident Page would win the contest. But, prior to the parade Mrs. Miller found a penny on the street and having a little streak of superstition in her, she gave the penny to her granddaughter "for good luck". Bystanders insisted to Mrs. Miller that the young Miss Miller didn't need a good luck charm, her natural beauty and charm were more than enough for any panel of judges, they said.

Float entries in last night's parade received many "oh's" and "ah's" from spectators along the parade route. The common remark was that "more time and money have gone into this year's floats than ever before." A Columbus reporter remarked that he hadn't seen nicer floats at any of the other Southern Ohio festivals this year.

Randy Weller, 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Weller, travelled with his parents about 500 miles to Circleville especially for the Pumpkin Show. However, little Randy won't be able to be too active for the remainder of the festival. To day he broke his arm while playing football at a friend's house on E. High St.

Fire Destroys Irrigation Motor

Fire destroyed a diesel irrigation motor at the Cole Nursery south of Circleville yesterday afternoon.

A spark from the 180-horsepower engine apparently ignited the roof of the building that housed the engine. The Kingston Fire Department was called to the scene.

Damage was listed at $3,150 by the Pickaway County Sheriff's Department.

In another fire reported by Clyde Bidwell, approximately four acres of grass were burned. The blaze apparently spread from a trash fire. The Williamsport fire department doused the field flames.

Deputy Gene Kerns investigated both fires for the sheriff's department.

Excellent Entries Feature Big Canned Goods Exhibit

Excellent entries were received for the Pumpkin Show Canned Goods exhibit, 114 W. Main St., according to Mrs. Frank Woodward Jr., chairman.

Mrs. Kirby Drake and Mrs. Goldie Bolender, each with 31 entries, won the most entries award. Mrs. Paul Stout was top first prize winner.

Mrs. Milton Griest and Mrs. Robert Woodward assisted with this interesting portion of the Pumpkin Show.

Federal Aid For Nurses Said Needed

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — There is no alternative to federal aid in solving the present and growing shortage of nurses, Western Reserve University's dean of nursing says.

Dr. Rozella Schlotfeldt addressed an audience of more than 1,000 at the Ohio State Nurses Association convention Wednesday Dr. Schlotfeldt was one of four special consultants for the recent report by the U.S. Surgeon General's Consultant Group on Nursing.

She said it is impossible to produce the 850,000 professional nurses it is figured will be needed to serve 1970's estimated U.S. population. To furnish a "realistic" 680,000 by that time calls for "remarkable changes" in nursing education and recruitment, she said.

As the Surgeon General's report suggested, Dr. Schlotfeldt said, nursing must resort to the same measures the teaching profession did in the postwar period. This, she said, may include reluctant reliance on short-term training programs to relieve the shortage.

It also may require, she added, federal support to students and government aid for physical facilities for nursing education and supported research.

Local Firemen Make Two Calls

Circleville Firemen answered two calls yesterday, with only minor damage resulting.

At 2:45 p. m., a unit was dispatched to E. Main St. near Pickaway St. where gasoline had spilled on the ground. No fire resulted, but firemen sprayed the area with chemicals.

At 7 p. m. firemen checked a car owned by Larry McFadden, 552 Plaza Drive. A cigarette had landed in the front seat.

Columbus Hospital Dedication Slated

Doctors Hospital, Columbus, will dedicate its west side unit at 3 p. m. Sunday.

Dr. P. C. Routhahn, 946 Circle Drive, is a staff member at the hospital. The general public is invited to attend the dedication, view the new equipment and visit with other members of the hospital staff who will be on hand to answer questions.

An open house and tour of new facilities will follow the dedication.

Traffic Docket Lists 2 Motorists

The Circleville Municipal Court listed two motorists charged with traffic violations.

Both signed waivers and paid fines levied. They were:

Richard J. Stanley, West Point, Miss.: $41 and costs for speeding 80 miles per hour in a 50 mile zone.

Robert D. Cotton, Circleville: $15 and costs for failure to yield the right of way.

Senior Citizens On Injury List

Active senior citizens headed the list of persons receiving emergency aid at Berger Hospital yesterday. A total of four persons were treated and released.

Trim Carroll, 70, Route 1, suffered a laceration on his right eyebrow while putting a ventilator in a corncrib.

Donna Haddox, 29, of 306 E. Logan St., bumped her left arm on a piano, causing contusions and a sprain.

Nolan Seitz, 32, Route 1, Amanda, lacerated his right hand working on a grain elevator.

Tires, Wheels Taken from Car

An unusual theft committed last night is under police investigation.

Danny Binkley, 225 Third Ave. told officers he had parked his car at the playground on Corwin St. prior to visiting the Pumpkin Show. When he returned he found the auto jacked up and the rear tires and wheels missing.

Binkley said he had just mounted mud and snow tires on the vehicle.

India-Pakistan Riff

Greatest threat to peace in Asia is the Kashmir dispute between Pakistan and India, the foreign minister of Pakistan, Zulfika Ali Bhutto, told the United Nations General Assembly.

Zulfika Ali would do well to reflect on an old story that had its origin in the general part of the world he comes from, concerning the elephant and the blind men. Each of four blind men described the beast in different ways because he could only feel part of it.

The Pakistani are doing the same. They are so close to their own problem with India (the Kashmir dispute) that they think it is the "whole elephant." In effect, they are blind to the main source of danger in Asia, which is Red China with its land-and-power hunger. This blindness has led them into agreements with Peking that may be deadly traps.

Zulfika Ali's second point is well taken "Reconciled, they (India and Pakistan) have it in their power to assure the future of a large segment of mankind." This is the point that must be emphasized repeatedly to leaders in Karachi and New Delhi — that together India and Pakistan can be great influences for good, but apart they are potential victims for communist conquest.

Satellite Deterrents

There isn't much that goes on inside the Soviet Union that the U. S. doesn't know about, if the happening is one that can be detected from the sky. And presumably the same is true about Russian knowledge of activities in the United States.

The reason is found in the hush-hush Samos "spy" satellites the U. S. has roaming around the world. And the Russians are known to have the same, their Cosmos series, though perhaps not as many. The U. S. has at least half a dozen operating currently.

These have their cameras trained permanently on the earth and can pick up a 10-foot object from 300 miles out in space. No major military activity should escape their detection. In a very real sense, the future military plans of any nation are today an "open book" to all others.

This in itself may be as great a deterrent to future major conflict as anything that has happened or will happen. Certainly more so than proper promises.

Fantasies from Kindergarten

By LARRY FRIEDMAN
CLEVELAND (AP) — What's life like in that wonderful—and sometimes wacky — world of kindergarten?

We can't be sure, because the only information we receive is from our 5-year-old. And she often takes a flyer into the world of fantasy.

My wife is anxious to find out what goes on in the little school room with the big doll house. By the bruises on little Arlene's legs, Mommy has discovered the youngsters sometimes toss around blocks. Paint on her hands and clay in her hair are more evidence of kindergarten tools.

To Mommy's questions of "How was school today, darling?" comes such nonsense answers as: "Okay," "Fine," or "The same as yesterday."

But Daddy hears all the tales — or at least they sound like tales.

It was sitting on the sofa one evening reading the newspaper when Arlene flopped down alongside me. Suddenly she blurted out:

"Daddy, Tommy kissed me in school today."

"Huh. Who kissed you?"

"Oh, the teacher didn't see him kiss me," she said innocently.

"Well, what did you do?" I asked anxiously.

"I kissed him back. He's a nice boy."

One day Arlene rushed home excitedly to relate the details of a "fire grill."

"It wasn't a real fire grill," she explained. "Just a make believe fire grill, because there was no fire."

Reluctantly, she reported one time about being told to sit in the corner.

"Well, what did you do to deserve such as honor?"

"I was talking after Mrs. Cook told us to keep quiet. Then I started talking loud to Vicki. But the teacher said she could hear someone whispering with her special ears."

"Daddy, do teachers have more than two ears like regular people?"

Since that day in the corner, Arlene has increased our weekly purchase of apples. On the theory that an apple a day keeps the doctor away, she has been eating two a day — and taking an additional one daily to Mrs. Cook. It must be big and red. And it must be so shiny it glows.

The Business World

AP Business News Writer
(For Sam Dawson)

NEW YORK (AP) — It's too early for most of us to think about Christmas shopping. But it's uppermost in the minds of merchants.

It looks like a good season ahead.

The National Retail Merchants Association predicts that Christmas buying will run as high as $3 billion, exceeding the 1962 total by 2 per cent.

"Retailers are justifiably optimistic about their Christmas prospects this year with business conditions good and consumers wealthy and inclined to spend," says the Value Line Investment Survey, a research organization.

Merchants who have long since ordered their Christmas wares are beginning to receive them and already are making plans to get an early jump on the selling season.

This year there will be five fewer shopping days between Thanksgiving Day and Christmas, the traditional buying period.

To offset this, toy departments will be bursting into life as early as November 1.

And although people do their Christmas shopping when they finally feel the seasonal urge, merchants will try to inspire that urge before Thanksgiving arrives.

Stores also will stay open longer hours and more evenings in an effort to win back those five lost days.

Christmas buying represents 18 per cent of the entire year's sales and this is a big factor in the annual profit picture.

The mail order houses also are getting ready for the yule season.

The big four — Sears, Roebuck & Co.; Montgomery Ward & Co.; Spiegel, Inc.; and Aldens Inc.—will distribute more than 23 million Christmas catalogs.

Prices listed in the new catalogs are about the same as last year but toys are lower.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

A YOUNG SALESMAN, who had wed what he described as "the most beautiful girl in the history of Milwaukee," returned from his honeymoon in a state of utter disillusionment.

"The trouble began," he admitted sadly, "when she came to me crying the morning after the wedding and told me she had swallowed her glass eye. I told her I never realized she had a glass eye, then asked her, 'How come you swallowed it, anyhow?' She answered, 'I guess I never should have put it in the same glass with my teeth.'"

Five or six decades ago, the Creoles residing in the country between Memphis and Houston, introduced a new form of musical show in which a principal character was always named "Mr. Jasbo." This was a corruption of the French "Chasse-beau," which meant a beau, or dandy, who took the wind out of the sails of other beaux. "Jasbo" in time was shortened further, to the word Jazz, and thus the era of Jazz was ushered in.

The famous old comedian, David Warfield, used to tell how his immigrant father made three important discoveries when he arrived in America: one: The streets weren't paved with gold; two: The streets weren't even paved at all; three: He was expected to pave them!

Speaking of YOUR HEALTH...

By LESTER L. COLEMAN, M.D.

Plumbism or lead poisoning, is still a significant threat to health and life. Recently, a disturbing series of fatalities resulting from lead poisoning has been reported in children between the ages of one and five.

Each of these children had eaten a quantity of peeling paint that contained lead. This strange perversion of appetite is technically called "pica." Pica is the term that describes a bizarre taste for inedible and dangerous substances.

Most outdoor and some indoor paints contain sufficient lead to produce a variety of intestinal symptoms in children who nibble on paint. As greater quantities are consumed, more serious complications arise. The lead is absorbed into the blood stream, then becomes deposited and fixed in the long bones of the body.

Lead poisoning is not uniquely a children's disease. For many years it has been a severe industrial hazard to house painters. Lead smelters and lead refiners. Inhalation of lead fumes can produce the symptoms of lead poisoning that children acquire by eating paint.

It should be emphasized that lead poisoning does not occur during the occasional painting process of the home. It is only the constant inhalation over a long period of time by workers exposed to lead paint or lead fumes that presents this problem.

Industrial health officials have introduced many protective devices against chronic lead poisoning. Educational campaigns directed at parents must not be relaxed, for there are many families who are still unaware of the potential hazard of lead paints.

Indoor paints, especially on cribs and toys, should be free of all lead. Flaking and peeling of paint indoors and outdoors should be quickly repaired before small children can fulfill that strange desire to nibble.

Chronic lead poisoning has stimulated chemists to discover new and safe means of ridding the body of lead deposits in the bone. A new technique has just been released by Dr. Samuel P. Bessman of the University of Maryland. A complex chemical — disodium calcium versenate — is being used to help elimi-

A Mixture of Elements

By John Chamberlain

The "image" of the American businessman and industrialist, as projected by our intellectuals, has generally been one of a cheater who would sell his own mother into slavery for a fast buck. The meat packers, according to the fiction of Upton Sinclair, made money out of poisoned beef; the airplane manufacturers, as depicted in a recently popular Broadway play, have been willing to risk their own aviator sons in defective planes in time of war.

In the days when I was doing a column of book criticism, his sort of stuff came over my desk regularly. Like any cliché, it got to be a bore. It also happened to be a tremendous distortion of the truth, as I came to know when I deserted the book world to write corporation stories for a business magazine.

The world of business is like any other world, a mixture of elements. It has produced villains, no doubt, but it has also produced saintly characters, such as my friend Spencer Heath.

Mr. Heath died last week at the age of 86 in his native Virginia, and was buried in a family plot in the Shenandoah Valley town of Winchester. The news of his death caused only the faintest of ripples, for he had been a quiet man for many years. There were only a few to remember that he was one of the great originating pioneers in the field of aviation manufacturing, and I doubt that there were ten people in the country who recalled the details of his effort to force manufacturing rectitude in the United States government in its aviation program for World War I.

Spencer Heath was the first man in the United States to develop a machine for the mass production of airplane propellers. His factory in Baltimore was turning out some 250 propellers a day when the United States entered World War I in 1917. Naturally, the government depended almost entirely upon the celebrated "Paragon" propellers that came from the Heath factory. No American-made plane was produced in time to carry such aces as Eddie Rickenbacker up over the German lines, but manufacturers like Mr. Heath gave it a good try, and if the war had lasted a little longer the "Paragon" propeller would surely have made an enviable wartime record. On May 16, 1919, a "Paragon" powered the first airplane, a Navy "N-C" seaplane, to fly from Trepassey in Newfoundland to the Azores.

As long as Mr. Heath made propellers to his own specifications, they were good ones. But at one point during the war the government ordered a type which Mr. Heath felt was quite unsound. When he presented an alternative design, he was informed, "Mr. Heath, this is war time. You make those propellers, or we'll shoot you."

With a federal gun at his head Spencer Heath complied with government orders. He was, after all, under military discipline. But before shipping the propellers out he had a rubber stamp made which read: "Made under protest. Condemned by manufacturer." This warning was stamped on every defective propeller that left the factory. The stamp is still in the proud possession of the Heath family. When he tried to trace the fate of the defective propellers he had made under duress, Mr. Heath was told they had wound up in a warehouse in Texas.

After World War I Spencer

Heath made the first practical engine — powered, controllable and reversible pitch propeller. This did for aircraft what the gear shift did for the automobile. Without it, the airplane would not have been adaptable to commercial use.

I knew Mr. Heath in the days of his retirement, long after he had sold his patents and technical facilities to the Bendix Aviation Company. In his book, "Citadel, Market and Altar," printed by the Yale University Press for his own Science of Society Foundation, Inc., Mr. Heath developed some remarkable theories bearing on inventive creativity that have been commended by Roscoe Pound, former dean of the Harvard Law School, and philosopher William Ernest Hocking. An original man always, Spencer Heath doubted that the Western nations were menaced by the higher birth rates of countries such as China and Soviet Russia. Since the populations of the high birth rate nations have short life expectancies, the fund of experience in those countries never deepens. Mr. Heath worked it out mathematically. "If you have half as many people who live twice as long," he used to say, "they will live to do something more than merely eat, grow to adolescence, reproduce their kind, and die."

Dayton Bribery Trial Postponed

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Defense motions have delayed setting of a trial date for Emanuel Siegel, the New Yorker who allegedly bribed a federal employee at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base to influence a multi-million dollar contract.

Siegel, 57, vice president of Local Electronics Co. of New York, faces trial on two counts of bribery.

U. S. District Court Judge Carl A. Weinman was to have set a trial date for Siegel Tuesday but motions filed by Harry Jeffrey, Siegel's attorney, delayed the action.

The judge gave the U. S. district attorney 15 days to file answers to Jeffrey's motions.

U.S. Jet Zips 8,028 Miles At 938 Mph.

GREENHAM COMMON, England (AP)—A U.S. Air Force B58 jet bomber sped from Japan to England nonstop Wednesday in 8 hours and 35 minutes. It covered the 8,028 miles at an average speed of 938 miles an hour.

This was a record paring 9 hours and 7 minutes from the best previous time for a flight between Japan and England.

The bomber, carrying a crew of three, set down at an airfield at this Berkshire village.

The plane had to slow down five times to be refueled by aerial tankers.

Commander of the plane was Maj. Sidney J. Kubesch, 33, of El Campo, Tex.

Maj. John O. Barrett, 32, of Yucca Valley, Calif., was the navigator and Capt. Gerard Williamson, 26, of New Orleans manned the defensive systems.

The Strategic Air Command said it was the longest supersonic flight in history. The previous record was about 4,900 miles set by a B58 flying from Los Angeles to New York and back in March 1962.

The flight actually started from Okinawa, but for record purposes it was timed from the moment the bomber passed over Tokyo to its appearance over London en route to Greenham Common.

The B58 Hustler came from Bunker Hill Air Force Base, Ind.

In the past 14 days the fire department has answered 15 fire runs, all pertaining to grass fires. So far they have been able to extinguish the blaze before any damage resulted.

Fire runs the past week were

Oct. 8 — to the Howard Koch farm on Route 104 to extinguish a field fire. On Oct. 9 — they extinguished two grass fires on Route 23 and two more grass fires north of Duval along the N & W Railroad;

On Oct. 10 they were called to the home occupied by Harvey Ferguson. They extinguished flames engulfing two awnings and windows, burning on separate sides of the upstairs.

The cause was unknown. Damage was listed at $100.

On Oct. 11 leaves burned out of control and reached a woods at the residence of William Hay on the Circleville-Winchester Road.

On Oct. 13 firemen extinguished a grass fire on the George VanOeyen farm on the Circleville - Lockbourne Road. The blaze apparently was caused by a discarded cigarette.

In the afternoon they were called to the farm of Mrs. Harry Baum where a grass fire possibly was caused by hot carbon from a jet plane.

On Oct. 14 leaves blazed out of control on the Mike Decker farm on the Circleville-Groveport Road and spread to a field. Later a unit was called to W Main St. where a fire was burning on the east side of the C&O underpass, possibly caused by a diesel engine. Still later they returned to this area where a fire was extinguished on the west side near the W. Main St. crossing.

Dazzling Arrangements Displayed at Flower Show

SWEEPSTAKES WINNER — Mrs. L. C. Schiff received the purple rosette "Sweepstakes" award for having the most winning entries in the Flower Show. She also won the award of distinction with this arrangement depicting "The Stepmother."

Cinderella in all her glory reigned at Wednesday's presentation of the Flower Show carrying out the theme of "Fairy Tales". From the old fashioned pumpkin coach to a modern space-age version of a Pumpkin coach dropping out of orbit, the ageless tale of Cinderella and the Prince at the ball was interpreted into beautiful arrangements of fall flowers.

Mrs. Kenneth R. Hannan captured the tri-color award (best of show) with her modern version of the Space-age Pumpkin Coach. Mrs. L. C. Schiff won the award of distinction with her arrangement depicting "The Stepmother". Mrs. Schiff also received the purple rosette "Sweepstakes" award for hav-

Dear Abby: by Abigail Van Buren

This Relative Goofed!

DEAR ABBY: A relative called me and asked if she should send us a wedding invitation. She said if we didn't intend to use it, she wouldn't send one because they are very expensive and they are running short of them. When I complained to my husband about it (they are HIS side of the family, wouldn't you know?) he said, "Oh, don't be so formal! Ask her to READ the invitation over the telephone and tell her yes or no!"

Is this the proper way to be invited to a church wedding? Do you think we should go? And if we decide not to go, do we have to send a gift anyway?

DISGUSTED
DEAR DISGUSTED: Your relative has much to learn about etiquette. Don't go to the wedding unless you want to. And a gift is optional whether you go or not.

DEAR ABBY: Our family is small, and we have many "single" friends (bachelors, divorcees and widows) whom we frequently invite to share a meal or an outing. Our children have often asked why the single men and women we invite so often never invite us for anything. At first we told them it was neither necessary nor expected. But the more we thought about it, the more we began to wonder — why don't they? They wouldn't have to include our children. I wonder why "singles" think nothing of repeatedly accepting invitations from their married friends, but rarely reciprocate.

JUST WONDERING
DEAR JUST: Many do. Only those "singles" who feel they have been invited out of "charity" do not consider themselves obligated, and therefore make no effort to reciprocate.

DEAR ABBY: A very attractive and well-educated woman has recently moved to our community. Her husband, an executive with a large firm, has been transferred here. The woman was given a warm welcome by all of us old residents. It is natural for a newcomer to talk about her experiences and friendships "back home," but this woman has divulged the most intimate information about her friends in her former community—things which could only have been told to her in confidence. She has even used their names. Chances are we will never meet them. But we keep wondering what she will say about as if she leaves here. If you will print this, perhaps we won't have to figure out a way to tell her she would be better liked if she didn't talk so much.

OLD RESIDENTS
CONFIDENTIAL TO J. AND S.: Sorry, but what you suggest is illegal, immoral and extremely dangerous. I urge you not to do anything as foolish as your considered plan. Parents are your best friends. PLEASE tell them everything tonight.

Dazzling Arrangements Displayed at Flower Show

SWEETSTAKES WINNER — Mrs. L. C. Schiff received the purple rosette "Sweetstakes" award for having the most winning entries in the Flower Show. She also won the award of distinction with this arrangement depicting "The Stepmother."

Cinderella in all her glory reigned at Wednesday's presentation of the Flower Show carrying out the theme of "Fairy Tales". From the old fashioned pumpkin coach to a modern space-age version of a Pumpkin coach dropping out of orbit, the ageless tale of Cinderella and the Prince at the ball was interpreted into beautiful arrangements of fall flowers.

Mrs. Kenneth R. Hannan captured the tri-color award (best of show) with her modern version of the Space-age Pumpkin Coach. Mrs. L. C. Schiff won the award of distinction with her arrangement depicting "The Stepmother". Mrs. Schiff also received the purple rosette "Sweetstakes" award for having the most winning entries.

Other awards were made in the following classes: "By the Fireside" — 1. Mrs. T. L. Pontious; 2. Mrs. Ned Harden; 3. Mrs. Schiff. "The Wicked Step-sisters" — 1. Mrs. John Beck; 2. Mrs. L. C. Schiff; 3. Mrs. Marvin Jones. "Cinderella" — 1. Mrs. Schiff; 2. Mrs. Charles Thompson; 3. Mrs. Joe McCoy. "The Stepmother" — 1. Mrs. Schiff; 2. Mrs. Theodore L. Huston. "The Fairy Godmother" — 1. Mrs. Ned Harden; 2. Miss Ruth Montelius; 3. Mrs. Schiff. "Pumpkin Coach" — 1. Mrs. Hannan; 2. Mrs. Gene Crawford; 3. Mrs. Schiff.

"Invitation to Prince's Ball" — 1. Mrs. Charles Thompson; 2. Mrs. Schiff; 3. Mrs. Miles Kahler. "At the Stroke of Twelve" — 1. Mrs. Schiff; 2. Mrs. Ned Harden; 3. Mrs. Theodore L. Huston. "Flight Down the Steps" — 1. Mrs. Joe McCoy; 2. Mrs. Ned Harden; 3. Mrs. Schiff. "The Prince and the Glass Slipper" — 1. Mrs. Miles Kahler; 2. Mrs. Edwin Richardson.

The special class using the theme "Pumpkin Gathering Time" was open to any garden club or organization in the county. This arrangement incorporated a pumpkin which was to be viewed free standing. Mrs. William Blaney arranged the winning entry for the Round-town Garden Club. Taking second place was Mrs. C. W. Hedges for the Solagua Garden Club and third place went to

Democratic Party Chiefs May Trim '64 Convention

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Democratic National Convention, which like Topsy just sort of grew, may be trimmed to a more manageable size next year. And its collective voice may have less Southern drawl and Western twang.

The decisions will be made when the Democratic National Committee meets in November or early December to allocate the votes for the 1964 convention at Atlantic City.

A subcommittee headed by Jacob Arvey of Chicago, the national committeeman from Illinois, has been studying the allocation of votes since last May. No proposals have been announced, but sources close to the national committee say these could be among them when the committee meets:

A return to the bonus system. It would reward with larger representation those states — mostly east of the Mississippi — which voted for President Kennedy in 1960.

No bonuses, but a reduction in voting power of those states which lost representation in Congress because of population shifts in 1950 and 1960 but, in effect, never lost any of their convention votes.

A combination of the two that would allocate votes on an up-to-date population basis plus bonus votes for multiples of Democratic votes in 1960, regardless of whether Kennedy carried the state.

Also expected to come up is a hardy uadrennial — the number of persons at a Democratic convention.

Republicans limit their state delegations to a one man-one vote basis. But Democrats over the years have split things up into half votes. That way more delegates get to go to the convention, a form of reward for party faithful.

But it also can be confusing. In 1960, there were 3,042 delegates authorized to cast 1,521 votes at the Los Angeles convention. And that didn't include more than 1,400 persons present as alternates.

To the politician, however, the number of delegates isn't nearly so important as the number of votes allotted each state.

Some critics felt the 1960 convention was weighted in favor of many—but not all—Southern and far Western states.

SIDEWALK ARTIST AND MR. PUMPKIN SHOW — A sidewalk portrait artist sketches a likeness of "Mr. Pumpkin Show," Bob Colville, from a snapshot familiar to everybody in Circleville. For many years Colville has been a guiding force in the Pumpkin Show. The artist drew sketches of all show directors.

The World Today

By J. W. DAVIS
(For James Marlow)

WASHINGTON (AP)—Lots of people say things they wish they hadn't. Members of Congress have a unique advantage in this situation — they can wave a magic wand and make the words disappear.

The magic wand is their privilege to change the remarks they make on the floor before they are made a part of the Congressional Record.

For example, the other day Rep. H. R. Gross, R-Iowa, was complaining about trips some members like to take at public expense. Gross never goes on these himself.

Rep. Harold D. Cooley, D-N.C., upholding the worth of travel, demanded of Gross:

"If you don't want to go, why don't you just shut up?"

But the next morning when the Congressional Record came out, Cooley had softened his words.

As revised for the record, they read: "It is difficult for me to understand why you continue to complain."

Offhand, it would seem that Congress would want its record to be accurate, to show exactly what took place and what was said. But any feeling along those lines is outweighed by a desire to look as good as possible. And in Congress, as elsewhere, hindsight is 20-20 vision.

The late Sen. Richard L. Neuberger, D-Ore., who fought the practice, once described one aspect of it this way:

"After a major debate in the Senate over an issue which stirs profound emotions I have seen many senators virtually rewriting the speeches and retorts just delivered on the floor of the Senate."

"Some will totally expunge comments made in the heat of debate that may seem indiscreet or unwise in the cold, gray light of the next dawn and in the inflexible type of the Congressional Record."

On the other hand there is the argument, in favor of allowing revisions, that was advanced years ago by Rep. John W. McCormack, D-Mass., now the speaker of the House:

"Sometimes in running debate, extemporaneous debate in the House and heated argument, I say things sharply that upon reflection I would not have said, and did not mean."

If he didn't mean them, and they still slipped out, it is understandable why he would want to change them. But again, this is a privilege not accorded to most citizens in this democracy.

The No. 1 authority on Congress' reluctance to tighten the rules on what is permitted in the Congressional Record is Rep. Paul C. Jones, D-Mo.

For years, Jones has been promoting a resolution to keep extraneous material out of the record, to have it reflect only what happened.

But Jones can't get the House Administration Committee, which reigns in this field, to even give him a hearing. And he's on the committee.

Eagon Plans To Quit 37th Division Post

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Brig. Gen. Herbert B. Eagon, former state director of natural resources, is retiring as assistant commander of the 37th Infantry Division, Ohio Army National Guard.

Eagon, who has a farm near Delaware and was a state cabinet member until January, has been assistant commander since February 1959. Lt. William H. Morr, division chief of staff, is considered his likely successor.

Democratic Party Chiefs May Trim '64 Convention

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Democratic National Convention, which like Topsy just sort of grew, may be trimmed to a more manageable size next year. And its collective voice may have less Southern drawl and Western twang.

The decisions will be made when the Democratic National Committee meets in November or early December to allocate the votes for the 1964 convention at Atlantic City.

A subcommittee headed by Jacob Arvey of Chicago, the national committeeman from Illinois, has been studying the allocation of votes since last May. No proposals have been announced, but sources close to the national committee say these could be among them when the committee meets:

A return to the bonus system. It would reward with larger representation those states — mostly east of the Mississippi — which voted for President Kennedy in 1960.

No bonuses, but a reduction in voting power of those states which lost representation in Congress because of population shifts in 1950 and 1960 but, in effect, never lost any of their convention votes.

A combination of the two that would allocate votes on an up-to-date population basis plus bonus votes for multiples of Democratic votes in 1960, regardless of whether Kennedy carried the state.

Also expected to come up is a hardy uadrennial — the number of persons at a Democratic convention.

Republicans limit their state delegations to a one man-one

The World Today

By J. W. DAVIS
(For James Marlow)

WASHINGTON (AP)—Lots of people say things they wish they hadn't. Members of Congress have a unique advantage in this situation — they can wave a magic wand and make the words disappear.

The magic wand is their privilege to change the remarks they make on the floor before they are made a part of the Congressional Record.

For example, the other day Rep. H. R. Gross, R-Iowa, was complaining about trips some members like to take at public expense. Gross never goes on these himself.

Rep. Harold D. Cooley, D-N.C., repudiating the worth of travel, demanded of Gross:

"If you don't want to go, why don't you just shut up?"

But the next morning when the Congressional Record came out, Cooley had softened his words.

As revised for the record, they

read: "It is difficult for me to understand why you continue to complain."

Offhand, it would seem that Congress would want its record to be accurate, to show exactly what took place and what was said. But also, feeling along those lines is outweighed by a desire to look as good as possible. And in Congress, as elsewhere, hindsight is 20-20 vision.

The late Sen. Richard L. Neuberger, D-Ore., who fought the practice, once described one aspect of it this way:

Big Gotham Newspaper Broke, Quits

NEW YORK (AP) — The financially distressed New York Mirror has ceased publication after 39 years and some of its assets have been sold to the New York Daily News.

"It takes everything I've got to keep from crying," said John Hearst Jr., grandson of the Mirror's founder, the late William Randolph Hearst, when the morning newspaper's demise was announced Tuesday night.

About 1,400 employees lost their jobs. The Mirror said it will distribute in excess of $3½ million in severance pay to them and test up an employment office to help them find new jobs.

The Hearst Corp. said in announcing the Mirror's sale:

"The name, goodwill and other intangible and physical assets of the Mirror have been sold to the New York News."

No purchase price was disclosed.

"The circumstances which forced the Hearst Corp. reluctantly to take this step are the same that have necessitated the discontinuance of so many other good newspapers all over the country," the announcement continued.

"Costs have risen far in excess of revenues and have created substantial deficits over an extended period of time. The recent prolonged newspaper strike aggravated the already serious problems of the Mirror."

Third Astronaut Selection Readied

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — The manpower pool for the U. S. moon shot program will be increased Friday with the selection of a third group of astronauts.

The Manned Spacecraft Center previously indicated from 10 to 16 men would be elected from the 71 military and 200 civilian applicants.

The new group will begin immediate training with 16 other astronauts for the two-man flights of Project Gemini Gemini flights will be the final preliminary step to Project Apollo shots aimed at placing astronauts on the moon in this decade.

3,000 Sheep To Get Winter Clothing

CASTLE CARROCK, England (AP) — Farmer William Wilson is putting his 3,000 sheep in sheep's clothing for the winter.

The sheep are being clad in special coats of jute sacking, made to Wilson's design at 70 cents each at an Edinburgh factory.

He whipped up such coats to protect the best sheep of his flock during last winter's severe weather and liked the results.

Pupils Given Data on Sex

Education Stressed In Junior High

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The teacher spoke about the human body and told how babies are born.

Some of the junior high school pupils reddened, a bit embarrassed as they avoided the sly glances of their classmates. Others snickered. Most, however, looked the subject seriously and listened intently.

Sex education is an important part of the curriculum of Philadelphia's junior and senior public high schools.

What sex is taught to children 13 and older in segregated classes either all boys with a male teacher, or all girls with a female teacher.

The Philadelphia Board of Education has been teaching about "marriage problems and social hygiene"—a more high-sounding description of sex — for more than 25 years.

Teachers don't preach, they describe. They don't moralize or condemn. They don't advise or suggest, they tell children who want personal answers to personal questions—which teachers can't handle under state school laws — to see their parents, clergymen or doctors.

"We try to develop an attitude so youngsters will make up their own mind," says Benjamin L. Stackowski, director of the division of physical and health education.

Dorothy R. McQueen, Stackowski's assistant, says full discussion of marriage problems formerly was confined to the senior high classes—with pupils generally 17 and 18—"but we have found this age level is too late."

The health education course, last revised in 1950, is being reviewed so younger boys and girls can be reached.

Philadelphia public school pupils get hygiene once a week, for 45 minutes. Sex is only part of the course. They also are taught about foods, diet, first aid, exercise, community health.

Soviets Halt British Unit

BERLIN (AP) — A British military convoy held on the Berlin Autobahn by the Russians today moved westward, a British spokesman announced.

The British spokesman said the convoy continued its interrupted journey "on our terms."

That meant the British refused the Soviet demand for the British soldiers to dismount to be counted.

The convoy was en route to West Germany for a routine training exercise, the spokesman said.

It was understood that the British demanded that the British soldiers get out of their vehicles and line up to be counted. The British convoy commander refused.

The Russians made the same demand of a U.S. convoy last week on the autobahn and the American commander similarly refused. A serious crisis resulted, but the Russians finally lifted their blockade.

Odyssey of Heartbreak Is Ended for Little Boy

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A lost little boy — parted two months ago from his mother, sister and father and then swept back and forth across the country by strangers — is back in his mothers familiar arms today.

Tony Mihaley, 2, arrived at Los Angeles International Airport Tuesday with a brave smile. But the smile wavered and was drowned in tears when he saw his mother for the first time in 2½ months.

Mrs. Mary Mihaley, 25, hugged him and said softly, "Don't, Tony, don't. You'll never have to cry again." He stopped crying.

Tony had flown 3,000 miles from New York City to find his mother, ending an odyssey of heartbreak that began Aug. 1 in Wichita, Kan.

Mrs. Mihaley had been living there with her husband Eugene, 29, Tony, and a baby daughter, Alison, now six months old.

She worked as a waitress to supplement her husband's income. Out of desperation, she said, she stole $120 from the cafe on Aug. 1.

Then she and the family fled by train. Not far south of Wichita, police stopped the train and took Mrs. Mihaley away. Mihaley did not go back with his wife. He stayed aboard with the children.

Mrs. Mihaley was taken back to Wichita where she was put on three years' probation.

She later learned that her husband got off the train with Tony at a small Oklahoma town. He left the baby on the train. She

How Weather Looks Today

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Official Weather Bureau summary of Ohio's weather outlook:

No break in the fair weather pattern was expected this morning for the eastern part of the country as high pressure continued its domination.

Skies remained clear over Ohio Wednesday night and temperatures at sunrise today were mostly in the 40s central and south and in the 50s to the north.

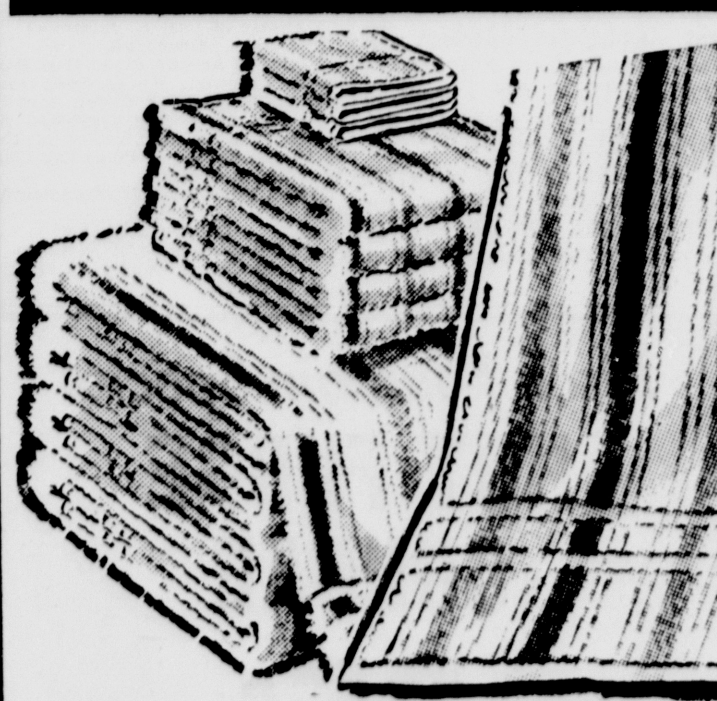

Drought conditions were forecast to continue through Friday with afternoon temperatures reaching the 80s, while overnight temperatures will be mostly in the 40s and 50s.

Winds were expected to remain light over Ohio today, diminishing the fire hazard somewhat.

TODAY In History

Today is Thursday, Oct. 17, the 290th day of 1963. There are 75 days left in the year.

Today's highlights in history: On this date in 1797, the Peace of Campoformido was signed, ending a five-year war between France and Austria. Under its terms, Austria ceded large areas, including the Netherlands, in exchange for Venice and Illyria.

On this date In 1885, England's Sir Henry Bessemer patented his process for making iron and steel.

In 1941, the Japanese Cabinet of Prince Konohe was succeeded by a government pledged to a strong foreign policy and headed by Lt. Gen. Hideki Tojo and Shigenori Togo.

In 1954, an eight-man syndicate bought the Philadelphia Athletics baseball club from Connie Mack and his sons to end the Mack family's 54-year ownership.

Ten years ago... President Giuseppe Pella said the Italian government would resign if the foreign ministers of the United States, Britain and France indicated giving in to Yugoslavian threats regarding the future of Trieste's zone A.

Five years ago... Five men were indicted in Atlanta on charges of bombing a Jewish temple.

One year ago... Brazil, Morocco, Norway and the Philippines were elected by the U.N. Assembly to non-permanent seats on the 11-member Security Council.

Ed Begley Finds 'Oscar' Helps Him Get Top Roles

Cop Cruiser Immunity To Be Studied

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Supreme Court agreed Wednesday to review an appellate court decision favoring a police officer involved in a traffic accident while pursuing a speeding red light cruiser.

Cruz of the case is whether the officer had statutory immunity while "responding to an emergency call."

Mrs. Mary Jo Lingo, mother of Victoria Lingo, sued Cincinnati policeman James Hoekstra after her daughter was injured in a collision with the cruiser while Hoekstra was chasing another car. The accident occurred July 2, 1958, on Cincinnati's Victory Parkway at Dana Avenue. The parkway had a 35 mile an hour speed limit.

Common pleas court awarded $500 for Victoria's injuries but an appellate court reversed and held for Hoekstra.

The appellate court said that while Hoekstra was on only routine traffic duty "who can say the fleeing motorist would not run other red traffic lights when pursued, which presented an emergency situation."

What a difference an Oscar makes. And few Oscars have won such warm approval in Hollywood as the one given last April to Begley for his role as the sadistic political boss in "Sweet Bird of Youth."

Begley is a self-made professional who can do and has done almost everything. One night on Broadway, he played William Jennings Bryan in "Inherit the Wind." The following matinee he played Darrow and won the applause of critics, who had been invited without his knowledge.

"I would have been scared to death if I had known," said Begley.

Now he's cavorting through a song-and-dance role in "The Unsinkable Molly Brown," even though he hasn't done anything musical since the 1920s, when he appeared briefly in a vaudeville dance act.

Begley plays Debbie Reynolds' rough-and-ready Pa and it's the kind of part he has been plunking for.

"When I played that mean old boss in 'Sweet Bird,' it kind of came easy to me and people seemed to like it," he said. "I started getting more mean parts, and that worried me. Was I really like that I don't think so. That's why I want to do comedy for a while. I'm not really a mean guy."

Begley may be the workingest actor in show business. He bounces from movies to television to plays with scarcely a day off.

A covered dish dinner preceded the meeting of the Mr. and Mrs. Garden Club Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Dearth, near Kingston.

Mrs. E. V. Graves presided over the meeting. Mrs. Fred C. Simon reported on the flower show held Tuesday at Frankfort. Announcement was made of the national Flower Hardware Show to be held at Veterans Memorial in Columbus in February.

Mr. L. E. Hill brought an arrangement which he called "The Pot of Gold." It consisted of orange and gold marigolds in a gold container. Mrs. Frank Haynes displayed a fall arrangement she had made.

Mr. Hill reported on the recent dahlia show held at the county fairgrounds. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Graves of Kingston. The next meeting will be held in Adelphi at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Patterson.

Mrs. H. S. Boggs returned home on Sunday after visiting since Friday with Miss Margaret Rooney at Dayton.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Leasure and Ricky and Ann of Middletown visited during the weekend with Mrs. Grace Leasure. On Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Leasure were in Columbus to attend the Ohio State - Illinois football game. When they returned to Middletown on Sunday their mother, Mrs. Leasure, accompanied them for a visit.

Mrs. Winston Hood, Kingston, and Mr. and Mrs. Max Noggle, Circleville, are planning to leave on Thursday for a trip to Williamsburg. They will return on Monday.

Mrs. James K. Boor left Tuesday morning for London, O., where he and Methodist ministers of the district will participate in a retreat especially planned for them.

An enjoyable time was had Friday evening when the Blues entertained the Reds with a casserole dinner in the Parish Hall of the Methodist Church. This was the conclusion of a contest.

After dinner Mrs. Howard Fish accompanied by Mrs. Grover Whitten sang a solo "The Lost Chord"; Mrs. Roger Wood gave a humorous pantomime; and Dr. J. P. Gardner fascinated the audience with the recitation of a group of his original poems.

The program concluded with a game played by the group and group singing.

Kathy Lyons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lyons, and a senior at Kingston High School, has been elected "Miss Kingston." She will represent her school at the Circleville Pumpkin Show and the Chillicothe Halloween Parade. The Kingston Band will play at the Pumpkin Show at 4:30 p. m. Thursday and also give a concert at 6 p. m. On Friday, they will appear in the 8 p. m. parade.

Mrs. Donald Beeman, Mrs. James Stewart Jr. and Mrs. Richard Arn were co-hostesses at a baby shower for Jodi Lynn Shoemaker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shoemaker. The party was held Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Beeman on W. Pickaway St.

Gifts were placed on the dining room table which was decorated with a floral centerpiece featuring a baby carriage and baby bootie. The centerpiece

The next meeting will be Nov. 11.

Miss Mary L. Harpster's callers Friday afternoon were her sister, Mrs. Myrtle Gill; her niece, Mrs. Howard Dresbach; and Mr. Ralph Sands of Findlay who was the husband of her late niece, Gladys Polen Sands.

Relatives here have received word of the death of Mrs. Lynn Brady, 78, (Alice Dunlap) of her home in Menlo Park, Calif. A native of Ross County, she was the daughter of N. J. and Elizabeth Bell Dunlap. Her father, who died in 1942 at the age of 99½ years was one of the last of Ross County's Civil War Veterans.

Mrs. James P. Mattinson and Mrs. Carl Smith, both of Kingston, were nieces of Mrs. Brady.

Mr. and Mrs. Hill and Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Sunderland entertained the Ross County Farm Study Group No. 4 at the home of the Hills on Monday evening. Eighteen members were present and one guest, Mrs. Herman Dresbach.

Mr. Sunderland was the discussion leader for the group. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

Mrs. Charles Wood and daughter, Miss Mary Kay, left Saturday for a vacation visit to Williamsburg, Va.

Soviet Space Pair Is Hailed by U.N.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Diplomats in the U.N. General Assembly hailed the first Soviet man and woman space pair Wednesday with a standing ovation and long applause. Grinning and in typical Russian fashion, they applauded back.

Col. Yuri Gagarin, the Soviet man who made a two-hour orbit two years ago, and Miss Valentina Tereshkova who made 48 orbits covering 1.2 million miles in June, dropped in on a regular session of the assembly and toured the building.

At a news conference afterward Gagarin said the Soviet space program calls for a moon shot within the next decade and that six cosmonauts are being trained for the role of being first to the moon.

Ohio Library Report Hit

Little Hoover Idea 'Self-Defeating'

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The president of the State Library Board, Joe Hurst, said Wednesday the Little Hoover Commission's recommendations for the library are "self-defeating."

The commission, reviewing state operations with an eye toward improved efficiency and economy, suggested virtual abolishment of the State Library with its functions to be absorbed in the Ohio State University Library.

Hurst pooh-poohed the idea of an individual, rather than in his official capacity, said that if the Little Hoover ideas are adopted they will cost the taxpayers more money, not less, and bring a deterioration in service.

Hurst pooh-poohed the idea of sniffling State Library operations from the 11th floor of the downtown Ohio Departments Building to the university campus.

He said the university library would have to put four to six floors and install new shelving to house the books. And making office space out of present stack space downtown, he said, would be costly. Altogether, Hurst estimated cost of the transfer at $2 million or more.

The commission recommended the library discontinue accumulation and filing of all state documents, Hurst retorted that the commission itself made extensive and frequent use of the library's collection during its study of state government.

"A most sought-after volume by the commission," he said, "was a previous study of state government—the Snerul Report—made in 1935. The library had the only copy."

Armco Hit By Unfair Labor Rap

CINCINNATI (AP)—Acting on orders from the general counsel, the regional office of the National Labor Relations Board issued an unfair labor practices complaint Wednesday against Armco Steel Corporation's Middletown operation.

A hearing on the complaint will be held Nov. 13.

The local office originally had rejected the charges filed by the United Steelworkers but was overruled by the NLRB general counsel as to some phases of the charges.

A spokesman for the local office said the charges on which the hearing will be held involve an alleged agreement between the company and the Armco Independent Federation, the incumbent union, that no union literature would be distributed on company property, that employees were discharged because of their activities in behalf of the Steelworkers Union and that one employee was questioned as to why he resigned from the Independent Union.

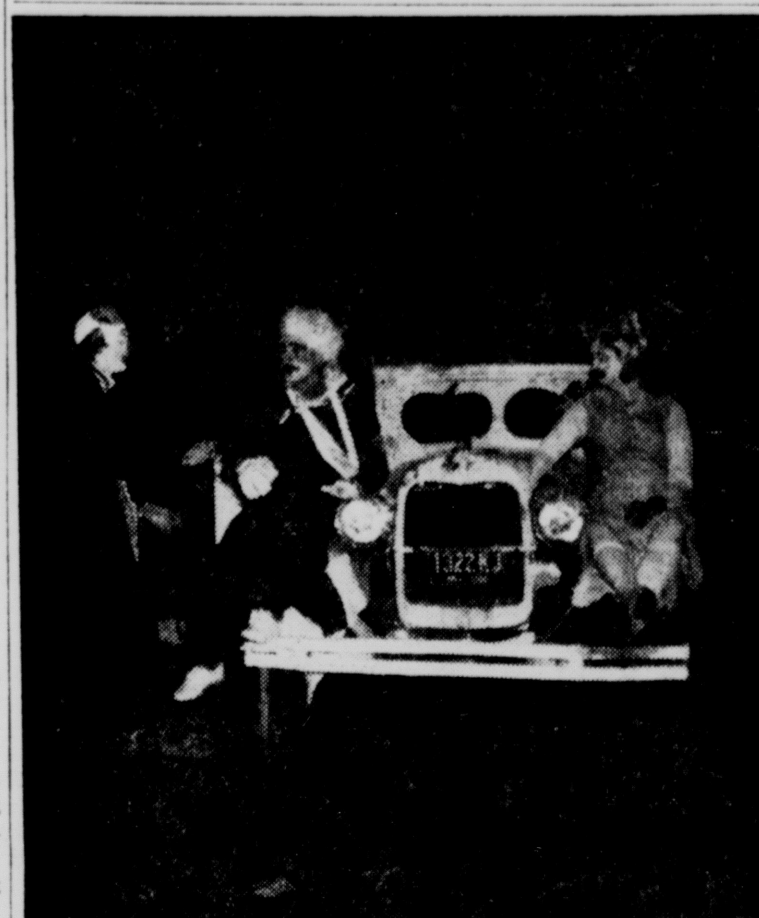

A new city of Skopje, Yugoslavia, is planned, perhaps on a different site nearby the old one.

TODAY In History

Today is Thursday, Oct. 17, the 290th day of 1963. There are 75 days left in the year.

Today's highlights in history: On this date in 1797, the Peace of Campoformido was signed, ending a five-year war between France and Austria. Under its terms, Austria ceded large areas, including the Netherlands, in exchange for Venice and Illyria.

On this date In 1885, England's Sir Henry Bessemer patented his process for making iron and steel.

In 1941, the Japanese Cabinet of Prince Konoye was succeeded by a government pledged to a strong foreign policy and headed by Lt. Gen. Hideki Tojo and Shigenori Togo.

In 1954, an eight-man syndicate bought the Philadelphia Athletics baseball club from Connie Mack and his sons to end the Mack family's 54-year ownership.

Ten years ago... President Giuseppe Pella said the Italian government would resign if the foreign ministers of the United States, Britain and France indicated giving in to Yugoslavian threats regarding the future of Trieste's zone A.

Five years ago... Five men were indicted in Atlanta on charges of bombing a Jewish temple.

One year ago... Brazil, Morocco, Norway and the Philippines were elected by the U.N. Assembly to non-permanent seats on the 11-member Security Council.

Ed Begley Finds 'Oscar' Helps Him Get Top Roles

Cop Cruiser Immunity To Be Studied

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Supreme Court agreed Wednesday to review an appellate court decision favoring a police cruiserman involved in a traffic accident while pursuing a speeding red light crasher.

Crux of the case is whether the officer had statutory immunity while "responding to an emergency call."

Mrs. Mary Jo Lingo, mother of Victoria Lingo, sued Cincinnati policeman James Hoekstra after her daughter was injured in a collision with the cruiser while Hoekstra was chasing an other car. The accident occurred July 2, 1958, on Cincinnati's Victory Parkway at Dana Avenue. The parkway had a 35 mile an hour speed limit.

Common pleas court awarded $500 for Victoria's injuries but an appellate court reversed and held for Hoekstra.

The appellate court said that while Hoekstra was on only routine traffic duty "who can say the fleeing motorist would not run other red traffic lights when pursued, which presented an emergency situation."

Celtics Show Old Power Sans Cousy

Cage Champs Win Opener; Lucas Shines in Debut

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Boston Celtics don't have superstar Bob Cousy any longer, but otherwise things haven't changed much for the perennial champions of the National Basketball Association.

The classy Celtics still have fabulous Bill Russell blocking shots, snaring rebound and frustrating opponents. They still have a great defense, balanced scoring featuring a fast break, fine reserve strength . . . and Coach Red Auerbach, who remains fiery despite a $500 pre-season fine levied by the new NBA President J. Walter Kennedy.

With Kennedy included in the crowd of 7,264 fans who welcomed the Baltimore Bullets back to the NBA after a nine-year absence, Auerbach yelled, stomped his feet and flailed his arms as Boston easily whipped the Bullets 109-95 Wednesday night.

In other openers, Lee Shaffer's basket with nine seconds to play gave the Philadelphia 76ers a 117-115 victory over the Detroit Pistons, and the Cincinnati Royals whipped the St. Louis Hawks 112-93 with rookie Jerry Lucas contributing 23 points.

"I was looser than I think I've ever been in my life, even in college. And, now I'm having fun," the 6-foot-8 Ohio State product said as he mopped his brow with a towel in the dressing room.

Lucas, who was everybody's All American for three seasons at Ohio State, sat out last year because of a contract with the now defunct American Basketball League Cleveland team.

The 230-pound rookie picked the hard way to start his pro basketball career by squaring off with Hawk superstar Bob Pettit.

Pettit led all scorers in the game with 39 points and he picked 12 rebounds off for the Hawks.

Lucas, who played the game with a knee heavily taped and bandaged because of a pulled tendon, was feeling like he could handle just about anyone in the NBA after playing against Pettit.

"For the first six or seven exhibition games, boy, I was completely lost," Lucas said. "But, now, I think I've found myself." Then the galloping greenhorn of the pro court shrugged his shoulders, and said, "This is great."

Some of the Royals were worrying about Lucas' knees holding up. Five exhibition games in six nights apparently caused a pulled tendon.

"It isn't the same injury I had in college," Lucas said. "And I think it's only a strain that will play itself out."

Palmer, Nicklaus Favored in Vegas

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—The two top rivals of tournament golf, Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus, were the co-favorites today as the $70,000 Sahara Invitation Tournament got under way.

Betting-minded Las Vegas quoted the two as 3-1 choices to win the $13,000 winner's purse of this 72-hole autumn classic.

A field of 124 professionals was entered in the event.

The tournament site is the 7,038-yard par 36-35-71 Paradise Valley Country Club.

Prexy Helps Pitt '11' Show New Life in '63

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
If the third-ranked Pitt Panthers finish the season unbeaten and untied, give some of the credit to Dr. Edward H. Litchfield, the chancellor.

Late last season it developed that there was differences between Coach Johnny Michelosen and some of his players. It was termed a misunderstanding, but an outgrowth was that Dr. Litchfield said he believed too many plays were called from the bench.

He called for Pitt to play a more exciting type of football and for the players to call more of their own plays on the field. He has denied that this meant he was taking over for Michelosen.

The Panthers were expected to go places a year ago, but wound up with a 5-5 record. So far this season they have beaten UCLA, Washington and California and seem headed for a return to the glory days of Pop Warner and Jock Sutherland.

On paper they shouldn't have much trouble winning their fourth straight against West Virginia at Morgantown, W.Va. Saturday.

But anyone aware of the Pitt-Mountaineer rivalry knows this is one game West Virginia aims to win more than any other. They whipped the Panthers the last two years.

Pitt's stars, Paul Martha and Fred Mazurek, are in fine shape

Chateaugay Loses To Never Bend

BOSTON (AP) — Making the fourth try, a successful one, Never Bend whipped Kentucky Derby winner Chateaugay in near-record time in the $50,000-added Yankee Handicap at Suffolk Downs Wednesday.

A three-time loser to the Derby Dan Farm colt, who had won seven of 11 races, Never Bend took the lead at the outset of the 1 1/8-mile test and held it all the way.

His victory margin was four lengths and his time was 1:49, only four-fifths of a second off the track record set by Whirlaway 21 years ago.

Chateaugay finished fourth with Dean Carl and Quest Link grabbing second and third.

but end Bob Long is hobbled with a knee injury and Wednesday he was replaced by soph Bob Dunlevy.

Numerous injuries were reported by other teams Wednesday.

The second-ranked Wisconsin Badgers learned that Larry Howard, senior end, will be lost for the remainder of the season because of a torn cartilage in his knee that requires an operation.

Matt Snell, fullback for third ranked Ohio State Buckeyes, was ruled out of Saturday's game against Southern California. Snell was injured last week against Illinois.

Each Bum's Series Share Is $12,794

NEW YORK (AP)—The dazzling World Series pitching of Sandy Koufax, Johnny Podres and Don Drysdale, which buried the New York Yankees in four straight put an additional $4,919.68 into the pockets of each fulltime member of the Dodgers.

In a breakdown of the Series player shares, Commissioner Ford Frick disclosed Wednesday that a full share was worth $12,794 to a winning Dodger while each full share for the losing Yankees amounted to $7,874.32.

They are the highest winning and losing shares in Series history. The Dodgers voted 32 1/2 full shares, the Yankees 35 1/2.

It was the first million dollar player pool, the Dodgers getting $427,369.51 and the Yankees $284,913 from the $1,017,546.43 jackpot.

The two runners-up, St. Louis and the Chicago White Sox, received $76,315.98 each while the third place Giants and Minnesota Twins got $50,877.32 apiece. Philadelphia and Baltimore, the fourth place clubs, garnered $25,438.66 each. Fifth place finishers were not included in the payoffs.

Logan Elm Needs Four Winning Tilts

Piketon High School Leader in Scioto Valley Conference

It's do or die for Logan Elm High School's football team for the remaining four games, beginning tomorrow night.

The Braves host Unioto in a Scioto Valley Conference tilt. And the remaining games are all loop encounters.

If Keith Merrin's charges hope to gain a share of the title they must win all four.

In loop competition the Braves have downed Laurelville and Unioto while losing to Pike ton. The Piketon gridders are undefeated in the conference.

IN THE LAST meeting between Unioto and Logan Elm, the second game of the season, the Braves won, 28-0.

But Merrin is quick to point out the Ross County team improved as the season progressed. Against Piketon, although defeated, they scored 13 points Logan Elm scored only eight.

Their best runner is Larry Davis, a 185-pound fullback in the previous outing against the Braves, they gained most consistently on a roll out option play.

They moved the ball well according to Merrin, until they got within the 20-yard lines. Their offense then bogged down.

Although Unioto has a 2-4 record, the squad has lost to four good teams — Piketon, Bishop Fenwick, Frankfort and Logan Elm.

Personnel — wise the Braves will be at full strength, according to Merrin.

A change in the lineup finds Mike Temple, a sophomore, starting at offensive tackle and defensive middle guard.

Single Club Golfer Loses On Appeal

CLEVELAND (AP)—For several years, Herbert Steiger has been trying to get the Cleveland Metropolitan Park Board to relax its rules forbidding golfers from playing on most of its five courses without carrying a bag.

Steiger, 61, who has suffered a heart attack, says he doesn't need a bag because he uses a six-in-one club with a movable head that can be dialed into any position from putter to niblick.

"Now I play a better game and enjoy it more," he told the Park Board at a showdown meeting Wednesday night. "At Shawnee, they let me on the par three course but not on the long nine."

"The pros are out to stop the use of the club. It cuts into their sales of a dozen clubs, bag and cart."

But his argument was in vain. Park Director Harold W. Groth replied:

"Two players often try to play out of one bag. 'Our courses are too crowded for such dillydallying. The all-purpose club is all right, but it's got to be carried in a bag to prevent complaints from other golfers banned for having no bag."

"We're going to entertain 400,000 golfers this year. Why waste time alibiing for one guy to 399,999 others?"

Teays Valley Gridders Face Tough Contest at Lakewood

The Teays Valley High School Football Vikings will be facing another tough contest tomorrow when they travel to Lakewood in Licking County.

The Lakewood gridders are in second place in the Licking County League. Last week they handed Granville its first loss of the season.

Teays Valley coach Marion Waits reported the line will outweigh the Vikings by nearly 20 pounds per man.

The Viking scouting report indicates their opponents do a lot of passing, utilizing a pro-type offense. They split both ends and occasionally a back. The Viking staff has been able to twice scout the team.

HAMPERED by a lack of depth all season injuries have consistently hurt the Vikings. And this week has been no exception.

Bill Younkin, right tackle, will be out with a bad knee. Charles Conrad, a 6-foot, 4-inch end is still out while John Rush, who injured his hand early in the season, is still seeing action on defense only.

Richard Myers, center, has a bad foot, according to Waits. But he is expected to see action tomorrow.

The lack of depth has hurt the Vikings in several instances this year. Several times, as they did last Saturday against Bishop Fenwick at Lancaster, they have performed well the first half of the game.

But in the later stages, they have tired. Opponents are able to substitute more freely, giving

Death of Boxer Is Being Probed

BALTIMORE (AP) — The Maryland State Athletic Commission begins its investigation today into the death of 26-year-old boxer Ernie Knox, who died of brain injuries after he was knocked out in the ninth round of a heavyweight bout Monday night.

The Baltimore heavyweight, an unemployed hod carrier, got $243 as his share of the purse for the 10-round event which was staged before a scant crowd of 869 in the Baltimore Coliseum. His death was the eighth boxing fatality of the year, and brought renewed cries from those seeking to outlaw the sport.

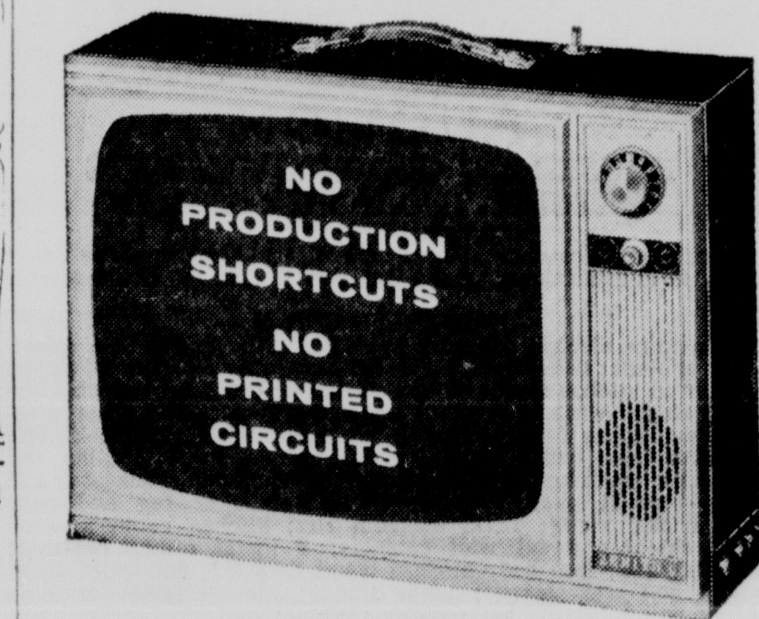

Portsmouth Man Kills Wife, Self

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio (AP) — A young Portsmouth man shot and killed his wife Wednesday night and then committed suicide, police reported.

Dead at the scene when officers arrived were Gerald Taylor, 23, and his wife, Sarah, 21. The coroner ruled it murder and suicide.

Celtics Show Old Power Sans Cousy

Cage Champs Win Opener; Lucas Shines in Debut

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Boston Celtics don't have superstar Bob Cousy any longer, but other things haven't changed much for the perennial champions of the National Basketball Association.

The classy Celtics still have fabulous Bill Russell blocking shots, snaring rebound and frustrating opponents. They still have a great defense, balanced scoring featuring a fast break, fine reserve strength... and Coach Red Auerbach, who remains fiery despite a $500 pre-season fine levied by the new NBA President J. Walter Kennedy.

With Kennedy included in the crowd of 7,264 fans who welcomed the Baltimore Bullets back to the NBA after a nine-year absence, Auerbach yelled, stomped his feet and flailed his arms as Boston easily whipped the Bullets 109-95 Wednesday night.

In other openers, Lee Shaffer's basket with nine seconds to play gave the Philadelphia 76ers a 117-115 victory over the Detroit Pistons, and the Cincinnati Royals whipped the St. Louis Hawks 112-93 with rookie Jerry Lucas contributing 23 points.

"I was looser than I think I've been in my life, even in college. And, now I'm having fun," the 6-foot-8 Ohio State product said as he mopped his brow with a towel in the dressing room.

Lucas, who was everybody's All American for three seasons at Ohio State, sat out last year because of a contract with the now defunct American Basketball League Cleveland team.

The 230-pound rookie picked the hard way to start his pro basketball career by squaring off with Hawk superstar Bob Pettit.

Pettit led all scorers in the game with 39 points and he picked 12 rebounds off for the Hawks.

Lucas, who played the game with a knee heavily taped and bandaged because of a pulled tendon, was feeling like he could handle just about anyone in the NBA after playing against Pettit.

"For the first six or seven exhibition games, boy, I was completely lost," Lucas said. "But, now, I think I've found myself." Then the galloping greenhorn of the pro court shrugged his shoulders, and said, "This is great."

Some of the Royals were worrying about Lucas' knees holding up. Five exhibition games in six nights apparently caused a pulled tendon.

"It isn't the same injury I had in college," Lucas said. "And I think it's only a strain that will play itself out."

Palmer, Nicklaus Favored in Vegas

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—The two top rivals of tournament golf, Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus, were the co-favorites today as the $70,000 Sahara Invitation Tournament got under way.

Betting-minded Las Vegas quoted the two as 3-1 choices to win the $13,000 winner's purse of this 72-hole autumn classic.

A field of 124 professionals was entered in the event.

Prexy Helps Pitt '11' Show New Life in '63

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
If the third-ranked Pitt Panthers finish the season unbeaten and untied, give some of the credit to Dr. Edward H. Litchfield, the chancellor.

Late last season it developed that there was differences between Coach Johnny Michelosen and some of his players. It was termed a misunderstanding, but an outgrowth was that Dr. Litchfield said he believed too many plays were called from the bench.

He called for Pitt to play a more exciting type of football and for the players to call more of their own plays on the field. He has denied that this meant he was taking over for Michelosen.

The Panthers were expected to go places a year ago, but wound up with a 5-5 record. So far this season they have beaten UCLA, Washington and California and seem headed for a return to the glory days of Pop Warner and Jock Sutherland.

On paper they shouldn't have much trouble winning their fourth straight against West Virginia at Morgantown, W.Va. Saturday.

But anyone aware of the Pitt-Mountaineer rivalry knows this is one game West Virginia aims to win more than any other. They whipped the Panthers the last two years.

Pitt's stars, Paul Martha and Fred Mazurek, are in fine shape

but end Bob Long is hobbled with a knee injury and Wednesday he was replaced by soph Bob Dunlevy.

Numerous injuries were reported by other teams Wednesday.

The second-ranked Wisconsin Badgers learned that Larry Howard, senior end, will be lost for the remainder of the season because of a torn cartilage in his knee that requires an operation.

Matt Snell, fullback for third ranked Ohio State Buckeyes, was ruled out of Saturday's game against Southern California. Snell was injured last week against Illinois.

Tiger Mat Schedule Is Announced

The season, which starts December 6, will continue to Feb. 28, 1964, and includes three home meets, four away, 2 invitations, sectionals, district and state finals.

The season will go as follows:
Dec. 6 At Columbus Central
Dec. 13 At Whitehall
Dec. 20 Grove City
Jan. 4 At Newark
Jan. 10 St. Francis Desales
Jan. 17 Columbus University
Jan. 23 At Columbus East

Each Bum's Series Share Is $12,794

NEW YORK (AP)—The dazzling World Series pitching of Sandy Koufax, Johnny Podres and Don Drysdale, which buried the New York Yankees in four straight put an additional $4,919.68 into the pockets of each fulltime member of the Dodgers.

In a breakdown of the Series player shares, Commissioner Ford Frick disclosed Wednesday that a full share was worth $12,794 to a winning Dodger while each full share for the losing Yankees amounted to $7,874.32.

They are the highest winning and losing shares in Series history. The Dodgers voted 32½ full shares, the Yankees 35¼.

It was the first million dollar player pool, the Dodgers getting $427,369.51 and the Yankees $284,913 from the $1,017,546.43 jackpot.

The two runners-up, St. Louis and the Chicago White Sox, received $76,315.98 each while the third place Giants and Minnesota Twins got $50,877.32 apiece. Philadelphia and Baltimore, the fourth place clubs, garnered $25,438.66 each. Fifth place finishers were not included in the payoffs.

their key players needed rest. At times, Waits has not had two full teams dressed for a game.

THE TEAYS VALLEY High School football team is playing an independent - nine game schedule this year.

Next year the Vikings will compete in the newly formed South Suburban League, along with Pleasant View, Franklin Heights who are currently members of the South Central Ohio League.

Brown Wins Player Award On Pro Grid

NEW YORK (AP)—Jimmy Brown probably could be the National Football League's Player of the Week every week for the rest of the season. His brilliant performance against the New York Giants Sunday easily earned him recognition in the first weekly survey by The Associated Press.

It was strictly no contest for Brown who ran over the Giants and around the Giants for 123 yards and caught four passes for 86 yards in a three-touch-down afternoon.

The fact that the former Syracuse star had never enjoyed such great success at Yankee Stadium in previous visits by the Cleveland Browns probably prompted the flood of laudatory news stories and columns.

The Brown statistics are eye-catching. In 101 attempts covering five games he has gained 787 yards rushing. Only 50 more yards and he will have matched Joe Perry's alltime record of 8,296 yards that took Joe 14 years to compile.

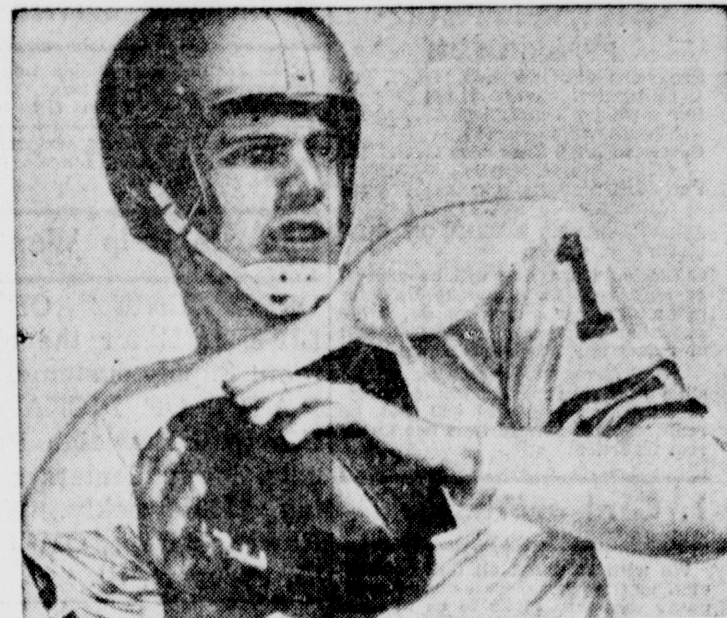

Sunday was a day of super performances in the NFL. Brown simply overshadowed all the others because it came in a game of vital importance in the Eastern Conference with the unbeaten challengers facing the defending champions in their home park.

Hooking of Fish Given Priority

SEATTLE (AP)—Who gets the outboard motor prize — the wife who hooked the winning salmon in a fishing derby or the husband who reeled in the fish?

The question was put to Superior Judge Edward Henry on Tuesday in the divorce suits of police Capt. Kathleen Brozovich and her husband, Patrolman Steve Brozovich.

Judge Henry decided hooking the fish counted most. The wife got the motor. Brozovich withdrew his suit and let his wife have the divorce too.

Tight Duck Law Vigil Promised

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Wildlife Division law enforcement officers will maintain "more than average scrutiny" over hunters in Ohio's major waterfowl areas when the duck-goose season opens at noon Monday, Oct. 21.

Ben Anderson, law enforcement supervisor, served notice that extra personnel will be transferred to these regions where duck hunting pressure is heavy, especially along Lake Erie and elsewhere in the north.

The Ohio season for taking deer with bow-and-arrow got under way Tuesday (Oct. 15) and the participants in one of hunting's toughest challenges have until Dec. 31—to bag the one-deer limit.

That one and only deer of the season must have a temporary tag placed on it before the carcass is moved, and then must be divided to a state game protector or an official checking station for inspection and permanent tagging within 24 hours.

Good news for both archer hunters and those looking forward to the brief, Dec. 12-12 gun season on deer comes from the Wildlife Division's Xenia station. The report is that the accidental deer kill, indicator of deer population, in southwestern Ohio is nearly twice as high this year as last (nine vs. five).

One of the traffic victims, believe it or not, sported a Kentucky Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources tag in its ear. Wildlife officials figure the 240-pound buck, struck down in Clermont County Oct. 2, swam the Ohio River. It ended up as venison for the Warren County Children's Home.

Woodcock hunting is reported good in the Henry County portion of Maumee State Forest. In the first two days of hunting Oct. 1-2, there were 16 successful nimrods, with a take of 65 birds.

More farmers are permitting hunting on their property in southwestern Ohio. Latest check shows 42 landowners with 13,143 acres have joined the Farmer

Tight Duck Law Vigil Promised

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Wildlife Division law enforcement officers will maintain "more than average scrutiny" over hunters in Ohio's major waterfowl areas when the duck-goose season opens at noon Monday, Oct. 21.

Ben Anderson, law enforcement supervisor, served notice that extra personnel will be transferred to these regions where duck hunting pressure is heavy, especially along Lake Erie and elsewhere in the north.

The Ohio season for taking deer with bow-and-arrow got under way Tuesday (Oct. 15) and the participants in one of hunting's toughest challenges have until Dec. 31—to bag the one-deer limit.

That one and only deer of the season must have a temporary tag placed on it before the carcass is moved, and then must be divided to a state game protector or an official checking station for inspection and permanent tagging within 24 hours.

Good news for both archer hunters and those looking forward to the brief, Dec. 12-12 gun season on deer comes from the Wildlife Division's Xenia station. The report is that the accidental deer kill, indicator of deer population, in southwestern Ohio is nearly twice as high this year as last (nine vs. five).

One of the traffic victims, believe it or not, sported a Kentucky Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources tag in its ear. Wildlife officials figure the 240-pound buck, struck down in Clermont County Oct. 2, swam the Ohio River. It ended up as venison for the Warren County Children's Home.

Woodcock hunting is reported good in the Henry County portion of Maumee State Forest. In the first two days of hunting Oct. 1-2, there were 16 successful nimrods, with a take of 65 birds.

More farmers are permitting hunting on their property in southwestern Ohio. Latest check shows 42 landowners with 13,143 acres have joined the Farmer

OPENING CEREMONIES — Cathy Griner, daughter of Mrs. Maisie Griner, officially opened the Pumpkin Show yesterday by playing the Foresman Chimes high atop the County Courthouse.

Latest Fad in Football: 'Tailgating' before Game

NEW YORK (AP)—The frost is on the pumpkin, college football teams are banging plastic headgears every Saturday afternoon and thousands of people are indulging in a growing popular pastime: Tailgating.

Tailgating? That's right, tailgating. It's a American as grilled hamburgers, ham-and-cheese-on-rye, hot dogs and cold beer—which, incidentally, are an integral part of the ritual.

To tailgate, all you need is a supply of the above items, plus perhaps a couple of folding chairs, buckets of ice and a plaid table cloth.

You don't even need a tailgate, the back end of a station wagon—although it helps.

Once it was the custom to pin a corsage of chrysanthemums on your best girl, bundle up in a raccoon coat and go to the football stadium an hour and a half before kickoff to listen to the bands and join in the cheers.

Not any more. Now the custom is to back the family bus into the parking lot, throw open the tailgate (if you're fortunate enough to own a station wagon, otherwise the truck compartment) and haul out the victuals.

Out pour blankets, chairs, tables, hibachis, charcoal burners, buckets of ice and beverages.

Then, in the shadow of the stadium with fans swarming by in clusters, follows a family picnic.

No one knows exactly how this autumn ritual originated, but, until a better claim come along Yale University is assuming the credit.

"It started with the Dartmouth game about 10 years ago," a Yale spokesman said. "Then it spread to the Princeton and Harvard games. Other schools in the Ivy League picked it up, and now it's almost universal."

It has been a boon to attendance. Whereas pop used to go to the games with a couple of pals from the office, now he takes the whole family. Often neighborhood and alumni groups make it a big outdoor party.

Ohio Croats To Protest Tito Visit

CLEVELAND (AP)—Many Clevelanders of Croatian descent resent the presence of Yugoslavia's Marshall Tito in the United States and 40 of them have gone to Washington to protest his visit.

The 40 — a few of them have been in this country only a few months — sent a letter to President Kennedy, accusing Tito of "Being personally responsible for the massacres of more than 200,000 Croatian soldiers and civilians."

They left Wednesday night in a chartered bus and had signs reading:

"For Croats, Yugoslavia Is Prison, Tito Its Brutal Warden."

"JFK: Do Not Help Tito, Help People to Get Rid of Tito."

"7 Million Croats Enslaved in Yugoslavia Demand Free Elections, Right of Self-Determination, Free and Democratic State of Croatia."

The Clevelanders were to join other Croats—from cities in New York and Connecticut—and all 150 planned to picket for three hours in front of the White House today.

Macmillan Very Tired In Tory Hunt

LONDON (AP)—Prime Minister Harold Macmillan's doctor reported him "very tired" today from his search for a successor to lead the British Conservative party. But Macmillan was expected to keep up his personal effort to resolve the leadership crisis.

Macmillan last week underwent major surgery, removal of his prostate gland, to clear a bladder obstruction. He announced he planned to resign, but Conservative leaders have been unable to agree on a successor to head the government and lead the party against the Laborites in the general election campaign next year.

After a week of cabinet rivalry, an authoritative Cabinet source said the contest had narrowed to a race between two Commoneers — Deputy Prime Minister Richard A. (Rab) Butler, 60, and Chancellor of the Exchequer Reginald Maudling, 46.

The source said the two other leading candidates—Lord H. H. Home, the science minister and Lord Home, the foreign secretary—had been ruled out.

Cincy Dem Fuss Leads Into Court

CINCINNATI (AP)—The latest development in the simmering feud between Councilman John J. Gilligan and John A. Wiethe, Hamilton County Democratic Party chairman, is a $375,000 libel suit.

Gilligan's attorney filed the suit Wednesday. It named as defendants Wiethe, William O. Walker of Cleveland, the P. W. Publishing Co. of Cincinnati, and James Chaney Alexander, a Cincinnati Democratic Party official.

Both Gilligan and Wiethe are Democrats, but they have quarreled for years over how the party should be run. Gilligan and two other incumbent Democrats are running for reelection without local party backing. The Democratic organization has its own slate of nine Council candidates.

In the suit, Gilligan charged that Wiethe inspired the publication of an article in the Oct. 5 issue of the Cleveland Call & Post saying he had refused to bury a Negro. He said the article was untrue. Gilligan is part owner in a funeral home firm and the Negro vote could have a lot to do with his chances of retaining office.

Walker is publisher-editor of the Call & Post and also serves as Gov. James A. Rhodes' director of the Ohio Department of Industrial Relations. Most readers of the Call & Post are Negroes.

New York Jerseys Take Top Prizes

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Cows from Henry Uhllein's Happy Hill Farms, Lake Placid Club, N.Y., were judged grand champion and grand reserve champion in the All American Jersey Open Show Wednesday.

Grand champion is Jestermaid J. Faith, a 3-year-old which attracted top price of $3,900 at Monday's auction, and reserve titlist is May Lad's Wallflower.

The 12th annual All American Jersey Show and Sale concluded with this event and with the PARADE WATCHERS — Most Roundtowners single out their favorite spots before parade time and there they stay until the parade is over. Yesterday during the Little Miss Pumpkin Show Parade, these two lads in identical attire stationed themselves on the hood of an auto to watch the parade from Pinkney St. Both seemed "hypnotized" by all the pretty first-grade contestants in the parade.

Today in Washington

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS WASHINGTON (AP) — In the news from Washington:

REDS: FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover says many American Communist leaders believe they are safe from arrest for some time and therefore are operating more openly.

In the FBI's annual report for fiscal 1963, issued Wednesday, Hoover called this a new trend. He said the "red leaders" "content there will be no more charges brought against them under the Internal Security Act of 1950 until the cases against Hall and Davis are settled finally by the Supreme Court."

Gus Hall, general secretary, and Benjamin J. Davis Jr., national secretary of the Communist party, U.S.A., have been indicted for failing to register with the government as members of the party. Motions for dismissal of the indictments are pending.

CUBAN SHIPPING BAN: The Senate Foreign Relations Committee has tacked onto the foreign aid bill a provision banning U.S. assistance to any nation which allows its ships or planes to carry military or strategic goods to Cuba.

The committee action Wednesday was slightly less restrictive than a similar amendment to the foreign aid authorization bill approved by the House. That amendment would have denied U.S. foreign aid to any country which failed to stop its ships and planes from carrying to Cuba any item of economic assistance as well as military and strategic goods.

NO. 17: The Atomic Energy Commission has announced detonation at its underground Nevada test site of a nuclear device—the 17th in a series of weapons development tests at the site this year.

In announcing Wednesday's blast, the AEC did not go into detail.

crowning of a winner in the 108-hour milking derby. Champion milk producer, with 332.2 pounds, was Beacon Bas Little Lady, owned by C. Scott Mayfield of Athens, Tenn.

POLLUTION: The Senate has passed and sent to the House a bill aimed at tightening controls over water pollution.

Among other things, the bill, passed Wednesday by a 69-11 vote, would authorize a federal study of how to prevent kitchen and laundry room detergents or other pollutants from getting into water supplies.

Ohio Family Gets Cash Windfall

PROVIDENCE, R. I. (AP)—An Ohio family has received a cash windfall of $11,683—money that includes 56 years of accumulated interest from the People's Savings Bank here.

"A surprise — quite a surprise," said Francis H. Hurst of Marion, Ohio, after learning of the money which his father deposited in the bank in both their names in 1907.

Hurst and his wife came here to claim the money Wednesday after the, were tracked down by Mrs. Hope C. Hazelhurst, a long-time employee of the bank.

Officials explained that when Hurst's father set up the joint account, he left the deposit book in safekeeping with the bank. The bank, acting as the authorized agent for the depositor, presented the book for interest credits on each dividend period. The account had never been regarded as inactive and subject to the state's escheat laws.

The bank recently abandoned the practice of holding depositors' books.

Woman in Narcotics Case Faces Penalty

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Mrs. Mary Manuel, whose husband now is serving a 90 - 125 year sentence for narcotics law violations, may receive a more severe sentence. The 33-year - old woman was arrested Wednesday on narcotics possession and sale charge that could result in a sentence of up to 150 years, authorities said.

Westinghouse Strike Called In Columbus

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Union employees of Westinghouse Electric Corp.'s Columbus appliance division struck shortly after midnight today and apparently became the first in the nation to ignore the union's contract extension.

A company official said an estimated 300 employees on the third shift walked out of the plant as picket lines went up. Tony Yates, vice president of Local 746, International Union of Electrical Workers, estimated the number at 500.

Some 4,200 union workers are among the plant's 5,000-member work force. The remainder are non-union office workers.

The full impact of the walk-out was not expected to be felt until later today when some 2,000 men were due to report for today's first shift.

Al Mero Sr., president of the local, notified the company Wednesday of the impending strike and expressed dissatisfaction with the IUE Westinghouse agreement on a national level to continue production under the expired contract on a day-to-day basis.

Westinghouse spokesmen said as far as they knew the Columbus local was the only one of those involved from coast to coast that decided not to go along with the contract extension.

Tale of Bridey Murphy Revived by Coloradoan

PUEBLO, Colo. (AP) — Remember Bridey Murphy.

Many people do, although whether this particular Bridey Murphy ever lived outside the dreams of a Colorado housewife under hypnosis is a matter for considerable argument.

Morey Bernstein, Pueblo businessman, student of parapsychology and author, insists she did. He said Bridey will be reborn again next year—in print.

Bernstein, who wrote "The Search for Bridey Murphy" nine years ago, said his new book will prove that Bridey was not a hoax and will supply new evidence for his contention that man's consciousness survives death.

Bernstein's long preoccupation with Bridey began in 1952 when a friend, Mrs. Hugh B. Tighe, agreed at a party to let him hypnotize her. Bernstein had been experimenting with hypnosis for 10 years before that.

While in deep hypnosis, Mrs. Tighe began describing in detail episodes in the life of Bridey Kathleen Murphy, including that she was born in Cork in 1789 and died in Belfast in 1864. As she lay as though in sleep and talked, Mrs. Tighe's speech and mannerisms were those of an Irish girl of little education.

Bernstein wrote his book on the basis of this and later sessions with Mrs. Tighe, who appeared in the book as "Ruth Simmons." He said the book was published in 30 countries with 205,000 hard-cover copies and 775,000 paperbacks. It was made into a movie.

Mrs. Tighe, who lives now in a Denver suburb with her husband and three daughters.

She said she had nothing to do with hypnosis since the experiment with Bernstein during which, armed with a tape recorder, he hypnotized her six to eight times over a period of 1 months. Each time Mrs. Tighe assumed the role of Bridey Murphy.

Bernstein said his new book "will be a counterattack at all levels—the hoax matter, the so-called scientific charges, the psychiatrists."
